Thomas Moore Longcope	William Handy Reeves

The offering was for General Missions, amounting to $43.19.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop Coadjutor at 10:50 A. M., and, a quorum being present, proceeded to business.

The Order of the Day being the election of a Secretary, the Rev. L. N. Caley nominated

the Rev. Richard J. Morris

On motion, the nominations were closed and the President, having cast the ballot, declared Mr. Morris duly elected.

The Secretary appointed as Assistant Secretary

the Rev. Charles S. Lyons

The Convention confirmed the appointment.

The Rev. L. N. Caley presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

which was adopted:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

It is to be understood that the hours referred to in the program are those known as Daylight-Saving Time.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title as far as possible. And all through the Convention Resolutions to discharge Committees from further consideration of the subject be omitted, it being understood that they are so discharged unless the Convention recommit the matter to their further consideration, or unless the work of the Committee is unfinished.

L. N. CALEY, Chairman.

The Rev. C. H. Long presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS

which was adopted.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

Canon II, Section VIII. Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Clergymen of other Churches in communion with this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, Wardens of Missions organized under the provision of the Canon on The Organization of Missions, and all persons holding any office of trust under this Convention, though not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of this Convention.

The Secretary read the Report:

The Secretary of the Convention reports

That during the past year he has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons so far as possible.

That under date of May 27 he sent out the Calls and other Documents for the Special Convention of June 18, and on June 12 for the change in place of meeting, and on March 1 for the Annual Convention.

That on February 1 only 40 of the Annual Reports of the Parishes and Missions had been returned out of the 222 due, many of them being very incomplete. He would ask once more that the Report blank be completely filled out, as all the figures are required for the Report to the General Convention and are a permanent record of the activities of the Parishes and Missions. This is the Report of the whole Parish and not merely of the Accounting Warden.

That boxes for the Registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies have been placed in the vestibules of the Church and all Deputies should register at once.

That the following is Unfinished Business from the Annual Convention of 1929:

(1) Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution.
(2) Amendment to Article VII of the Constitution.
(3) Report of the Diocesan Campaign Fund.
(4) Report of the Committee on Communication from the General Convention.
(5) Report of the Committee on the Cathedral Project.
(6) Report by the Committee on Seating Deputies from S. John, Northern Liberties.

That the following Parishes have not sent in Certificates of Lay Deputies and therefore have no Lay Deputies in this Convention: S. Peter, Great Valley; *Good Samaritan, Paoli; S. Luke, Chadds Ford; Atonement, Morton; Christ, Franklinville; Covenant, Philadelphia; Holy Innocents, Tacony; Messiah, Port Richmond; S. Barnabas, Kensington; S. Bartholomew, Philadelphia; S. Elisabeth, Philadelphia; S. Mary, Philadelphia; S. Paul Memorial, Philadelphia; S. Thomas, Philadelphia. *Received later.

The Secretary reports further:

That the following Parishes have not sent in Parochial Reports for 1929: Atonement, Morton; Christ, Franklinville; Christ, Ridley Park; S. Andrew, Philadelphia; S. Luke, Chadds Ford. S. John, Northern Liberties, has sent in a partial Report. Also of Missions and Chapels entitled to seats: S. Andrew Chapel, West Manayunk; S. Peter, Weldon; Transfiguration Chapel.

That the following Parishes have not paid the required Assessments for 1929: Christ, Franklinville; Holy Innocents, Tacony; S. Barnabas, Kensington; S. Thomas, Philadelphia; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge.

The Rev. E. M. Jefferys offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the right of Representation in this Convention of those Parishes which have not sent Parochial Reports, except S. John, Northern Liberties, or have not paid their Assessments, be declared forfeited; but that they be invited to present to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats any facts which seem to them to justify a restoration of such rights of Representation; and, that the said Committee be instructed to consider such facts and make appropriate recommendations to the Convention; and, that meanwhile the Lay Representatives from said Parishes be invited to take their seats, but to refrain from participating in the proceedings until the Convention shall have restored the right of Representation of their Parishes.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Claims of Clergy to Seats:
The Rev. Frank Goostray — The Rev. R. H. Gurley
The Rev. E. S. Thomas

Claims of Laity to Seats:
Mr. C. L. Harper — Mr. J. L. Evans
Mr. George Hall

The COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report as follows:

That in accord with Standing Order V, the Preliminary Ballot was sent out to 246 Clerical Deputies according to a list prepared by the Ecclesiastical Authority as entitled to vote and to the Rectors of the 142 Parishes in Union with the Convention (3 each) for the use of the Lay Deputies.

That from the 40 Preliminary Ballots returned the Official Ballot was prepared and sent to the Clerical Deputies and to the Lay Deputies whose election had been certified to the Secretary of the Convention under date of April 28th and to the Secretary of the Convention.

That the elections will be held in the usual manner in the Church House, the Clergy voting in the Assembly Room and the Lay Deputies in the room adjoining. The First Ballot will be taken at 1.45 P. M.

For the Committee,
RICHARD J. MORRIS, Chairman.

The Secretary reported the Nominations for Offices to be filled by Election, as certified to by the Committee on Elections. (See pp. 38, 47, 48.)

Additional Nominations from the Floor were made as follows:

STANDING COMMITTEE: Mr. G. W. Jacobs.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL: The Rev. C. E. Eder, the Rev. Franklin Joiner, the Rev. C. W. Shreiner, the Rev. F. C. Steinmetz, Messrs. E. H. Bonsall, W. J. Dickson, Spencer Ervin. The Rev. Franklin Joiner withdrew his name. Mr. Howard W. Wood was nominated, but as he could not be identified, his name was not included.

There being no further Nominations, on motion the Nominations were ordered closed, and, where only a sufficient number had been nominated, the Secretary was instructed to cast the Ballot for those nominated; which having been done, the President declared elected the following:

STANDING COMMITTEE: The Revs. G. G. Bartlett, S.T.D.; E. M. Jefferys, S.T.D.; Franklin Joiner; J. O. McIlhenny, D.D.; L. C. Washburn, S.T.D.

MEMBERS OF THE CORPORATION OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION: The Revs. G. C. Carter, D.D., J. L. Hady; Messrs. R. S. Morris, F. H. Moss, P. S. Williams.

The Lay Deputies confirmed the election.

The Chair appointed the Tellers as follows:

CLERICAL VOTE: The Revs. I. E. Brooks, N. H. Caley, C. H. Ewing, W. H. Fryer, J. H. Hawkes, A. T. Helms, C. E. Hopkin, H. W. Jones, W. R. McKean.

PARISH VOTE: Messrs. Charles Cain, E. T. Newell, W. B. Carns, F. B. Downs, S. A. Dunbar, David Holmes, J. T. Ledger, E. A. Pedrette, S. L. Welsh, T. E. Woodward.

The Rt. Rev. G. A. Beecher, D.D., Missionary Bishop of Western Nebraska, and the Rt. Rev. F. W. Creighton, D.D., Missionary Bishop of Mexico, were presented to the House and invited to a seat in the Chancel.

The Rev. W. M. Sharp presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS

To the One Hundred and Forty-sixth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

The Committee on Charters respectfully reports that it met on March 27, 1930, at the call of the Convener and organized by the election of the Rev. Walter C. Pugh as Chairman and the Rev. William MacD. Sharp as Secretary.

The Committee considered the application for approval of its proposed Charter and admission into Union with the Convention of "St. Barnabas Church, Germantown."

The Committee finds that this Church is a congregation having its place of worship in Germantown, Philadelphia County, and that it has been duly organized in conformity with the Canon of the Diocese regulating the Organization of New Parishes.

That the proposed Charter is in the proper form, being substantially in that of the approved Form of Charter and that it conforms to the requirements of the Canon and of Article IV, Sec. 2, of the Constitution of the Diocese.

That the proposed Charter has been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee, and the Committee on Charters concurs therein and recommends that it be approved by the Convention, and offers the following Resolution:

"RESOLVED, That the application of 'St. Barnabas Church, Germantown,' and its proposed Charter of Incorporation be approved, and the said Church be admitted to the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania."

By order of the Committee,

WILLIAM MACD. SHARP, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the hearty congratulations of the Convention be given to the Rector and Congregation of S. Barnabas' Church, Germantown, on their admission to union with the Convention of the Diocese.

The Secretary called the names of the Lay Deputies.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

and offered for final action the changes in the Constitution approved at the Convention of 1929:

(1) Amend Article IX of the Constitution by adding at the end thereof the words:

> "And Provided Further, That the necessary quorum for the election shall consist of not less than one-half of the Clergy and Lay representations respectively entitled to seats and votes in Convention."

The Amendment was adopted unanimously.

(2) Amend Article VII of the Constitution by inserting the words: "and votes" after the word "seats" in the last line.

The Amendment was adopted unanimously.

Dr. Grammer continued the REPORT, and offered the following Amendments to the Canons, each of which was recommended for adoption by the Committee:

Proposed by the Committee on Charters.

Amend Canon I, Sec. II, 1, by inserting after the word "approval" in the ninth line of the section the words: "or become effective."

The Committee on Canons, after consultation with the Chancellor, desires to propose the following Substitute, which has been accepted by the Committee on Charters:

Amend Canon I, Section II, 1, by striking out everything after the word "approval" in the ninth line thereof, and substituting the following:

> "nor shall any such Church or Congregation amend its Charter by By-Law, until, in every such case, the proposed amendment or alteration shall have been submitted to the Bishop and Standing Committee for their approval or disapproval, referred to the Committee on Charters, and after report thereon by the latter Committee has been approved by the Convention."

The Substitute was adopted.

Proposed by the Secretary of the Convention:

Amend Canon VII, Section I, Subsection 1, by striking out:

> "(2) For Pension Premium of the Clergy" and "Taxes" in (6), and renumber the items.

The Amendment was adopted.

Proposed by the Rev. F. C. Hartshorne:

Amend Canon IX, Section III, Subsection 1, (a), by adding after the word "located" a new sentence:

> "Clergymen not having any permanently localized work shall be entitled to vote only in the Convocation in which they reside."

The Amendment was adopted.

Dr. Grammer continued the REPORT, and offered the following, without recommendation or prejudice:

Proposed by the Secretary of the Convention:

Amend Canon XV, Section II, Subsection 1, by changing the comma after the words "the communion of the Church" in line 14, to a period, and inserting the words, "He shall also place on an Inactive List of Communicants, which shall be noted in the Annual Report, persons, who, in the judgment of the Minister," etc., leaving out the word "or" in line 15.

On motion of the Rev. G. E. Pember the proposed Amendment was referred back to the Committee on Canons to report to the Convention of 1931.

Dr. Grammer continued the REPORT and offered the following, on which the Committee report unfavourably:

Proposed by the Secretary of the Convention:

Amend Canon IX, Section IV, Subsection 1, by adding at the end thereof the words:

> "All Parishes adopted as Missions shall be considered to have waived their right to representation by Lay Deputies in the Convention."

Amend Canon II, Section V, by adding at the beginning thereof the words:

> "Each Organized Parish of the Diocese which has adopted the status of a Mission Station, and"

On motion the Report was received and the Committee discharged from further consideration of the subject.

Mr. R. S. Morris presented the REPORT OF THE CHANCELLOR AND THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS in re S. John, Northern Liberties:

The Chancellor and the Committee on Canons, to whom was referred the report of the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats to the Convention of 1929, in regard to seating the Deputies from St. John's, Northern Liberties, have carefully considered the various matters involved, and agree with the conclusions reached by the Committee on Claims and with their recommendation that the Deputies from that Parish should be seated.

But the Chancellor and the Committee on Canons feel that conditions such as seem to exist in that Parish, and probably in others also, suggest some much larger questions of policy than the mere seating of Deputies, such, for example, as to whether, when it comes to such a matter as the election of a Bishop, Parishes with small and diminishing congregations and doing a minimum of work should have equal voting power with the largest and most active. The Chancellor and the Committee on Canons would be glad to be instructed to give further study to these larger questions, and to report, if they see fit, recommendations to the next Convention.

ROLAND S. MORRIS, Chancellor
F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman of Committee on Canons.

On motion of the Rev. L. N. Caley, the Report was adopted and the Committee continued, to report to the Convention of 1931.

The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CLERICAL SALARIES AND PENSIONS

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese in a sum not exceeding $10,000 for the purposes of the Sustentation Fund for 1931.

The Rev. J. F. Bullitt presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATION FROM THE GENERAL CONVENTION

and offered the following Resolutions:

1. RESOLVED, That this Convention approve the Amendments aforementioned in their purpose and as conforming to the principles of the Constitution of the General Convention.

2. RESOLVED, That this Convention put itself on record as recommending to the General Convention greater care in the choice of phraseology in Amendments to the Constitution thereof.

Resolution 1 was adopted.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Bishop bade the Convention to Noon-Day Prayers.

The Rev. G. E. Pember offered the following Substitute for Resolution 2 above, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the matter referred to in Resolution 2 be referred to the Bishop and the Deputies to General Convention.

The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CATHEDRAL PROGRAM

(See Appendix R, p. 329.)

The Order of the Day being the ADDRESS OF THE BISHOP, the Secretary read a Cablegram received from the Bishop of the Diocese, together with a communication to the Convention and the Diocesan Statistics.

(See Appendix A, C, pp. 54, 61.)

The Bishop Coadjutor read the Address and presented a copy of his Diary and Official Acts.

(See Appendix B, D, pp. 57, 93.)

On motion of the Rev. C. E. Grammer, the Secretary was instructed to send the following Cablegram to the Bishop:

"Convention expresses appreciation message. Sends affectionate greetings and good wishes."

The Secretary announced that Blank for Lay Deputies had been received from Good Samaritan, Paoli, and that Church has representation in this Convention.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Bishop Coadjutor called the Rev. M. E. Peabody, Chairman of the Field Department, to the Chair.

After the singing of Hymn 479, Addresses on The Advance Program for the Diocese were delivered by

RESOLVED: That the Bishop be authorized to appoint after the adjournment of the Convention the usual Committees and Commissions.

The Bishop appointed the following Committees:

ON ARRANGEMENTS, ON CANONS, ON CHARTERS, ON DISPATCH OF BUSINESS, ON ELECTIONS, ON EXPENSES, ON MUSIC. (For personnel see page 7.)

The Rev. L. C. Washburn offered the following Resolution, which, on motion, was subdivided as herewith:

1. RESOLVED: That the Convention recommends the continuation and the extension of the Every Member Canvass in November.

The Resolution was adopted.

2. RESOLVED: That the Executive Office be notified of the Extra-Parochial Expectations for 1931 promptly.

The Resolution was adopted.

3. RESOLVED: That in order to make the Canvass successful, we request the Executive Council to take steps to meet the 1930 obligations without an appeal at that time for a Maintenance deficit, to that end, if necessary, adjusting the Diocesan Budget items to the assured income.

The Resolution was lost, on division Ayes 28, Noes 86.

4. RESOLVED: That the Convention recommend to the Executive Council the desirability of making the amount pledged to the National Council a preferred charge upon our contributions.

The Resolution was withdrawn.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Rev. M. E. Peabody offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED: That the Convention urgently requests and confidently expects that Parishes and Missions will send at the end of each month all monies definitely contributed for the work of the Diocese and of the General Church.

The Rev. A. E. Clattenburg offered the following Amendment, which was accepted:

Add after the word "send" the words "to the Treasurer of the Diocese."

Mr. J. L. Evans offered the following Amendment, which was lost:

RESOLVED: That the following Preamble be added to the Resolution, viz.:

"WHEREAS, It is the opinion of this Convention that monies given to the Parishes for Diocesan and General Missions should not be used, even temporarily to defray ordinary Parish expenses."

The Resolution was adopted.

Mr. Peabody offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That this Resolution be made one of the Standing Orders of the Convention; and that it be printed in the monthly Reports sent by the Treasurer to the Parishes and Missions.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That the bills for Luncheon and for the Public Address System be referred to the Committee on Expenses.

The Rev. J. K. Shryock presented the REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

The Rev. F. W. Tomkins, the Rev. F. C. Steinmetz, the Rev. S. R. West and the Bishop Coadjutor addressed the Convention.

The Rev. A. E. Clattenburg offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That the Field Department be requested to arrange for three or four Missionary Bishops to address the Annual Convention of 1931.

The Order of the Day having arrived the President bade the Convention to Noon-Day Prayers.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That after the reading of the Rough Minutes and prayers by the President, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The Rough Minutes were read and approved.

After prayers by the President the Convention adjourned at 12.15 sine die.

FRANCIS M. TAITT,
President of the Convention.

(ATTEST) RICHARD J. MORRIS,
Secretary of the Convention.

Registered Attendance: Clerical Deputies 214; Lay Deputies 234 (118 Parishes); Lay Representatives 7.

The Standing Committee having granted me a leave of absence, we sailed on January sixth from Los Angeles for a Round the World Cruise. This is the first Convention of the Diocese from which I have been absent since my Consecration, nearly nineteen years ago.

I am conscious of the extra burden of responsibility resting upon our Coadjutor owing to my absence, and I am grateful to him for his cheerful acceptance of added duties. I trust that with the assistance of our excellent staff of workers at the Church House, these additional duties will not be found too exacting.

I do not desire to send a formal address to be read to the Convention, but merely send these few words of greeting to tell you that you are daily in my thoughts and prayers.

May God lead us with renewed Consecration to labor together for the spread of the Gospel of His Son Jesus Christ, and may the blessing of God ever rest upon you and abide with you.

SINGAPORE, MARCH 7, 1930

THOMAS S. GARLAND

APPENDIX B

The Bishop Coadjutor's Annual Address

Owing to a much-needed and richly deserved rest of our beloved Diocesan, it becomes my duty to present the annual address to the Convention.

First of all I want to express my appreciation of the kindly and loving way in which I have been received by all my brethren. Nothing but affection and co-operation have been given me in all my relations and undertakings. For this I am deeply grateful.

I could not begin my address without telling you of my great satisfaction and joy that the Diocese has met its Missionary obligation to the Church at large.

A National Council is elected by the delegates from every Diocese. This Council estimates the cost of maintenance of the existing work and divides it up by a percentage method among the various Dioceses. Loyalty to the Council of our own election demands that each Diocese shall honestly strive to meet that portion assigned to it. The Diocese naturally divides this portion among the Parishes by the same method. Each Parish, in loyalty both to the National Council and to its own Diocese, strives to secure the amount allotted to it. Thus a loyalty is called out on the part of every member.

Method of Apportionment

As the year drew to a close, it was apparent that the whole amount would not be reached by the regular method. All felt that the old historic Diocese of Pennsylvania could not fail the Church at large. Accordingly, the officers and members of the Convocations were called together, and a Committee from each appointed to ascertain if it would not be possible for that individual Convocation to meet its apportionment. Some of our Convocations have more living wealth in them than others. These Convocations were asked to over-pay the amount assigned to them, to cover deficits in less-favored Convocations. To the great delight of everyone, the Diocese was able to pay slightly more than was asked, and the National Council closed the year without a deficit. This was laudable. Something much more than this, however, was accomplished. Members of the Committee became deeply interested and an enthusiasm was created for doing the Lord's work. New sources of financial and spiritual strength were discovered which will be invaluable in the future work of the Church.

The meeting of the quota provides only for maintaining already existing work. The advance work must be carried on by additional gifts from the faithful. This Diocese has assumed $113,000 of this work. It is hoped that those whom God has blessed with this world's goods will give liberally toward this amount. The quota almost exhausts the power of the smaller giver, and we do not want to divide the amount among the Convocations except as a "last resort." We hope there will be no "last resort," but that men and women everywhere will be glad to contribute to these splendid objects and will come forward at once with liberal gifts. As the whole sum is not due until the fall of 1931, contributions may be made in quarterly installments.

Advance Work

The year has demonstrated the wisdom of Bishop Garland's Campaign for Missions and Institutions. Although we did not reach the goal of $3,500,000, the $2,000,000 subscribed has been of inestimable value. The long list of advance work which I shall enumerate would have been impossible without this fund. The various Institutions of the Church also would have become static or probably retrogressive without its aid.

Diocesan Campaign

The past year has been one of great Church activity. Five cornerstones have been laid and twelve buildings have been dedicated. Many Parishes have added to their equipment and some have had considerable gifts of money.

Church Progress

On June 15, 1929, I laid the cornerstone of Holy Comforter, Aronimink. This Parish transferred its building in Philadelphia to the colored work of St. Monica's Church, and moved into Delaware County. The work has now proceeded so far that services and Parish activities are being held in the building, and a Confirmation Class, of considerable size was presented to the Bishop. Many rows of houses of high character have been erected since we broke ground and there is a wonderful outlook for this work.

On July 27, 1929, I laid the cornerstone of Holy Trinity Parish House, Lansdale, and on the fourth of March, 1930, the Parish Building was dedicated and is being fully used.

On September 28, 1929, I laid the cornerstone of St. Giles, Stonehurst; and on February 9, 1930, held a service of dedication in the Parish Building. By the purchase of a piece of land that increased in value more than twenty times the original purchase price, we were enabled to build a Church, Parish Building and Rectory, and have a partial endowment for this work. A very large congregation was present and the outlook is good.

On September 29 the cornerstone of the Church of the Holy Sacrament, Highland Park, was laid by Bishop Garland. On December 22 I officiated at the opening service and the Church was crowded to its capacity. Since entering the new building the congregation has more than trebled.

On April 13 I laid the cornerstone of St. Ambrose Parish House, in Kensington. This Mission is doing a good work in a congested portion of northeast Philadelphia. Its Missionary is very much beloved not only by his own people, but by the whole neighborhood, and the work has become prosperous.

On June 2 the Parish House of the Church of the Redeemer, Springfield, was dedicated and a very interesting and prosperous work is being conducted by the Rev. G. R. Bishop. It is one of the suburbs of Philadelphia that gives promise of rich development.

Dedications

On June 16 the Church and Parish House of St. Bartholomew's, Wissinoming, was dedicated.

On September 29 a Mortuary Chapel and Baptistry was dedicated at St. John's, Norristown.

The Parish House of the Church of the Advent, Hatboro, was dedicated on October 31. This is a beautiful Parish building, well adapted for the work of the Church.

On December 8 St. Barnabas, Kensington, having removed from the Church into the Parish House, had a service of dedication. There is a great revival of work in this old Parish. There were some who felt that the Church should be closed. It appeared to others that, with an active man, there might be a great neighborhood work done. Our faith has been justified by our experience. The Rev. Albert W. Eastburn has done a marvelously good work there, and the Parish Building, which holds about two hundred people, is well filled at all services. A social work is done in the evenings in other parts of the same building. If we are fortunate enough to sell the old Church we could secure an endowment for this work. It would not be adequate, but an amount that would be of very great help.

St. Luke's, Germantown, was re-dedicated on October 17. The whole interior has been changed and a new pulpit and choir stalls replace the old. In its new condition the Church is extremely beautiful and the atmosphere worshipful.

A Sacristy was dedicated at St. Wilfrid's, Dolington, on October 27.

A Sacristy was also dedicated at St. James the Less, at the Falls of the Schuylkill, on December 2.

On January 26, 1930, I officiated at the dedication of the Parish Building of St. John the Evangelist, at Essington. The work here has been phenomenal. A very flourishing Sunday School, well-attended Church services, and the large number of Baptisms reported indicate that the Church is meeting the needs of the population.

Marked advance has been made in many of our Missions. Already I have spoken to St. Barnabas Church, Kensington, which was about to close its doors, and is now doing a splendid work in northeast Philadelphia.

Marked Advances

St. Martin's, Marcus Hook (which has been practically dead for a quarter of a century) has had a great revival in the last year. Large congregations are present at each service, and a Confirmation class of considerable size was presented.

St. George, Venango (which was also closed several years ago) has shown great vitality. At the Bishop's visitation the Church was crowded to the doors. The Mission has a Men's Club unequalled probably by any Parish in the Diocese.

St. Matthew's, Oxford Circle, is also forging forward. One of our old Parishes (now surrounded by a foreign population) has given itself over to the Church Foundation. The proceeds from its sale will probably be given to this work, and the old name perpetuated. A fine lot has been secured, and it is hoped that a Church building may soon be erected on the site.

There have been also certain changes and events in the Diocese that are worth mentioning. St. Michael's Chapel, which stood on the corner of Nineteenth and Lombard Streets, has moved to Yeadon. Every member of the Chapel has been provided for at the Parish Church of St. Mark's. The work at Yeadon, while it bears the name and is the successor of St. Michael's, is practically new and in a flourishing suburban district.

St. John's Church, Norristown, has opened a colored Mission under the name of St. Augustine. It has, at the present time, a Sunday School of 140 and a very considerable congregation. A valuable lot is being secured and a church is to be donated. A Parish building is to be erected by the Church of St. John's, Norristown. The work among the colored people of Norristown is most hopeful and there is great enthusiasm among the people themselves.

St. John's, Pequea, celebrated last year its two hundredth anniversary. This ancient church has gone through a great number of vicissitudes, but under the present Rector the work is being pushed forward with a hope of permanent success. The anniversary was very largely attended and we think did the Parish much good.

St. John's, Cynwyd, has been enriched by eight memorial windows, and $18,000 has been contributed for eight more. The first official act that I performed in the Diocese was the dedication of these windows. The celebration of the eighty-sixth birthday of the Rev. H. A. F. Hoyt, Rector Emeritus, and the fifth anniversary of the Rev. A. E. Clattenburg, Rector, took place the same day. St. John's today presents a marvelous change from what it was when I first remember it and when Mr. Hoyt assumed the Rectorship. It then consisted of three frame buildings of no beauty or architecture. Today it is one of the most beautiful groups of Church, Parish Building, and Rectory that we have in the Diocese.

Several of our Churches have had the gifts of chimes of bells. In Calvary Church, Conshohocken, such a set has been given in memory of Augustus D. and Charlotte R. Saylor. In the Church of the Messiah, Gwynedd, a set was given in memory of Charles Francis Gummey, and in the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, a set was given in memory of D. B. C. Catherwood.

Huntingdon Valley Chapel has made a $15,000 addition to its Church.

St. John's, Concord, has been the recipient of a legacy.

All Hallows, Wyncote, has received the gift of $35,000, which has been used to pay off the mortgage on the Parish House. The property is now absolutely free from debt.

Christ Church Chapel has been sold and the proceeds set apart for Church work. Many of the memorials have been given to Parishes and Missions. The neighborhood has greatly changed and there was no further purpose served in the continuance of the Chapel.

Colored work has been begun at All Saints, Moyamensing, by the Rev. Victor E. Holly, and is meeting with great success.

St. Barnabas Colored Church in Germantown has ceased to be a Mission and is applying to this Convocation for a charter as a Parish. This is very gratifying to us all, and is due very largely to the arduous and intelligent work of the Rev. E. Sydnor Thomas.

One of our aided Parishes, Trinity, Swarthmore, has also withdrawn itself from Diocesan aid, and has become a self-supporting Parish. Under the able and efficient Rectorship of the Rev. J. Jarden Guenther, it promises to be one of the most flourishing of our suburban Parishes.

In the last year three of our Clergy of very long service in the Diocese passed away in the midst of their activity. While a record is made in this report of all the Clergy who have deceased during the last year, these three had rendered such distinguished service that they are worthy of special mention. The Rev. Walter A. Matos, who for over thirty years was in charge of Trinity Church, Swarthmore, and for the last five years its Rector, gave most self-sacrificing service to the Church. For many years he received only $300 a year, and after thirty years of service in the one place still received the minimum salary. He gave himself most thoroughly to his work and sacrifice was a joy to him.

In Memoriam

The Rev. Charles A. Ricksecker was the first appointed Missionary to All Saints, Darby, and gave us many years of valuable service. Reaching an age that no one suspected, we feel the wonder of his work as we look back on it.

The Rev. Joseph Sherlock, for thirty-nine years Rector of St. John's Chrysostom's, was one of most saintly character. He was my classmate at the Central High School of Philadelphia, and as a boy was so pure and upright that one could predict a future of holy living.

All were removed from us quite suddenly, but the impress of their work and personality will ever remain in the Diocese.

The Children's Lenten Offering has not yet been reported, but it is always one of the glories of our Diocese.

Bishop's Bricks Fund

The Bishop's Bricks Fund was presented at Zion Church on January 11 and amounted to $1717.18, which is one of its largest offerings. It was used for furnishing a part of the Parish Building of St. Ambrose's Church.

United Thank-Offering

The United Thank-Offering of the Woman's Auxiliary was made at the Church of the Incarnation on April 24, and amounted to over $12,000, which was $682 more than the offering of last year. This is exceedingly gratifying to everyone. The women of Pennsylvania always do nobly.

Peak Will

By the Will of Harry Louis Peak, his residuary estate was left for the building of a suitable and appropriate memorial to the Rt. Rev. William White, D.D., the first Bishop of Pennsylvania. At the time of the making of the Will, Mr. Peak probably had no idea of the amount of his residuary estate. It reached the sum of $240,000. The Court decided that this sum could be divided into two parts of $120,000; one part to go to Valley Forge, where a Cloister will be built containing a statue of Bishop White; and the other to the Divinity School, where a Chancel is being built in memory of him. A statue of Bishop White will also be in the Divinity School memorial and will thus fulfill the requirements of the Will.

Diocesan Choir

A new Institution of the past year is the formation of a Diocesan Choir under the leadership of our Committee on Music. A largely attended service was held in the Church of the Advocate and the choir rendered most creditable music. The possibilities of this choir are very great.

Let us hope that these works done for the Master are but evidences of an ever-deepening devotion to Him and His cause. Christianity is engaging the thought of men today more than at any time in the last three centuries. The power of Christianity to beautify and ennoble life is being more and more realized. Many Christian works are undertaken because we believe that they will be of real service to mankind, and indeed they are; and service is a lofty ideal. There is something however, loftier and more compelling than this. It came to Count Zinzendorf as he gazed at a picture. It transformed him from a sensualist to a self-sacrificing servant of God and man. Leaving the gayety of the world and the comforts of his home, he came to America as a humble disciple of the Christ and Leader of his people. He had a joy unknown before.

It was a simple picture of the Christ upon the Cross, and underneath were the words, "All this have I done for thee, what hast thou done for me?"

When above the pleasures and turmoil and strife of life we can lift our eyes and see the Christ with arms outstretched upon the Cross for love of us, we long to do His work and joy to fulfill His Mission.

Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands our soul, our life, our all.

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church:

JOHN GARDNER MURRAY, Sixteenth Presiding Bishop of the Church, Seventh Bishop of Maryland and President of the National Council, died at Atlantic City, New Jersey, on October 3, 1929, in the seventy-third year of his age. He was presiding in Saint James' Church over the meeting of the House of Bishops and had just rendered a decision, when he was stricken with apoplexy and died at once. He was born in Lonacoming, Maryland, on August 31, 1857, and began preparation for the Methodist Ministry, receiving his education in Wyoming Seminary and Drew Divinity School. Owing to the death of his father in 1881 he was compelled to enter business, advancing from a book-keeper to vice-president within eleven years, which commercial and banking experiences proved of great value later on. At the age of thirty-five he was able to resume his earlier intention and, having entered the Church in the meantime, was made Deacon in 1893 by Bishop Jackson and ordained Priest the following year by Bishop Wilmer. From 1894 to 1896 he had charge of eight stations in the Alabama River Mission, becoming Rector of the Church of The Advent, Birmingham, in the latter year. Here he remained until 1903, when he was called to the Church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Baltimore, Maryland. He declined elections to the Bishopric of Kentucky in 1904 and to Mississippi in 1908. In 1909 he was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of Maryland by Bishops Paret, Adams and Randolph, becoming Diocesan in 1911. He was the first President of the Province of Washington and the representative of that Province on the National Council at its formation, after having served for many years on the Board of Missions. He was elected Presiding Bishop and President of the National Council in 1925, a position which he accepted quite against his will because he considered it "a Call of God and of the Church." His first concern was always with spiritual matters; "How best to serve" was his motto; but it was as an executive and an administrator, rather than as a theologian, that he was best known. Overflowing with splendid optimism, warm-hearted and wise in counsel, a gentleman in the highest sense, he was not merely an official, but far more a true shepherd and Bishop to all with whom he was thrown. Of him it can be said most truly, "He did justly, loved mercy and walked humbly before his God."

LUCIEN LEE KINSOLVING, Retired Bishop of the Missionary District of Southern Brazil, died at his home in Forest Hills, Long Island, on December 18, 1929, in the sixty-eighth year of his age. He was born in Middleburg, Virginia, on May 14, 1862, receiving his early education at the Episcopal High School, where he graduated in 1881. He spent the next four years in establishing a Church School at Beattyville, Kentucky, when he decided to study for Holy Orders and entered The Theological Seminary at Alexandria. He was made Deacon and ordained to the Priesthood in 1889, proceeding at once to Brazil, where he started missionary work in Rio Grande do Sul. Having been elected Bishop of Southern Brazil, he was consecrated on January 8, 1899, by Bishops Dudley, Doane and Scarborough. In 1907 he was elected American Missionary Bishop of Southern Brazil and continued his splendid work in that great country until his health failed in 1926. Two years later he resigned his jurisdiction.

DAVIS SESSUMS, Fourth Bishop of Louisiana, died very suddenly at his home in New Orleans on December 24, 1929, in the seventy-second year of his age. He was born in Houston, Texas, on July 7, 1858, receiving his theological education at the University of The South, Sewanee, where he graduated in 1882, being made Deacon and ordained Priest that same year. For a few months he was in charge of Grace Church, Galveston, Texas, when he became Assistant Minister at Calvary Church, Memphis, Tennessee. Here he remained until 1887, when he accepted a call as Rector of Christ Church, New Orleans. On June 24, 1891, he was consecrated Assistant Bishop of Louisiana by Bishops Quintard, Tuttle and Garrett, becoming Diocesan six months later on the death of Bishop Galleher, being thus the fourth oldest Bishop at the time of his death. An exponent of conservative theological thought he achieved a position of distinction in the councils of the Church.

THEODORE NEVIN MORRISON, Third Bishop of Iowa, was struck by an automobile and fatally injured in front of his home at Davenport, Iowa, on December 27, 1929. He was in the eightieth year of his age. Born at Ottawa, Illinois, on February 18, 1850, he graduated from Illinois College in 1870 and from the General Theological Seminary in 1873. He was made Deacon that same year and ordained to the Priesthood in 1876. From 1874 to 1876 he was connected with Saint Paul's Church, Pekin, Illinois, when he became Rector of the Church of The Epiphany, Chicago, where he remained until 1899, when he was consecrated Bishop of Iowa on February 22 by Bishops MacLaren, Seymour and Walker.

BEVERLEY DANDRIDGE TUCKER, Second Bishop of Southern Virginia, died on January 17, 1930, at the Sarah Leigh Hospital in Norfolk, Virginia, where he had been under treatment for injuries resulting from an accident suffered last Fall. He was in the eighty-fourth year of his age, having been born in Richmond, Virginia, on November 19, 1846, and obtaining his early education in English and Swiss Schools and at the University of Toronto. He graduated from the Divinity School in Alexandria in 1873, being made Deacon that year and ordained to the Priesthood in 1875. From 1873 to 1882 he was Rector of Farnham and Lunenberg Parish in Richmond County, and from 1882 to 1906 Rector of Saint Paul's Church, Norfolk, serving as Deputy to the General Convention in 1892 and 1906, as well as on many Diocesan Committees. On October 3, 1906, he was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Southern Virginia by Bishops Randolph, Peterkin and Cheshire, becoming Diocesan in 1918.

CHARLES PALMERSTON ANDERSON, Seventeenth Presiding Bishop of the Church, Fourth Bishop of Chicago and President of the National Council, died at his home in Chicago on January 31, 1930, in the sixty-sixth year of his age. For more than two years he had suffered from a chronic heart disease, which prostrated him and ultimately resulted in his death. He was born in Kemptville, Ontario, Canada, on September 9, 1864, receiving his education in Trinity School, Port Hope, and Trinity University, Toronto, being made Deacon in 1887 and ordained Priest the year following. His first work was at Beachburg, Ontario, from which he was called to Grace Church, Chicago, in 1891. Elected unanimously on the first ballot, he was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of Chicago on February 24, 1900, by Bishops McLaren, Gillespie and Seymour, and became Diocesan on February 19, 1905. Preeminently the natural selection, he was elected Presiding Bishop on November 12, 1929, on the sixteenth ballot, a choice which in all probability would have been much earlier if it had not been for his recognized physical condition. An Apostle of World Peace and of Church Unity, for several years Chairman of the Commission on Faith and Order, essentially a Missionary in interest and in outlook, an outstanding Preacher and Student, of commanding appearance and attractive personality, well-versed in matters of organization and leadership, he was an increasingly well-known figure in religious and civic affairs. Unspoiled by high office and authority, he was a man without vanity, gentle of heart, sincere in faith, unwearying in good work, he was loved by all who came in contact with him.

ARTHUR CRAWSHAY ALLISTON HALL, Fourth Bishop of Vermont, died at Rockpoint, Vermont, on February 26, 1930, in his eighty-third year, from the effects of a fall suffered three months previously. He was born in Binfield, Berkshire, England, on April 12, 1847, receiving his early education at Brighton College. Upon graduation, at the age of 18, instead of going to Oxford University as was his original intention, he proceeded to Cowley, where he was duly professed, being made Deacon in 1870 and ordained to the Priesthood the year following. In 1874 he was sent to Boston, Massachusetts, to aid in the establishment of the American branch of the Order, serving as Assistant Minister at the Church of The Advent until 1882, when he became Priest in charge of the Church of Saint John the Evangelist, where he served until 1890, except for one year among the miners and lumbermen in Manitoba, being on the Standing Committee from 1889 to 1891 and a Deputy to the General Convention in 1889. In 1891 he was recalled to England. On February 2, 1894, he was consecrated Bishop of Vermont by Bishops Neely, Niles and Coleman. A Canonist of national reputation and a brilliant Preacher, he was best known, however, as a spiritual guide in the Cure of Souls, a gift amply attested to by the many books of devotion which he wrote and which proclaim his mastership in that important art.

CHARLES LEWIS SLATTERY, Eighth Bishop of Massachusetts, died after a very short illness from a heart affection on March 12, 1930, aged sixty-two years. He was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on December 9, 1867, graduating from Harvard University in 1891 and from the Episcopal Seminary at Cambridge in 1894. He was made Deacon the same year and ordained to the Priesthood the year following by Bishop Lawrence. From 1894 to 1896 he was a Master at Groton School, with charge of Saint Andrew's Church at Ayer. In 1896 he was elected Dean of the Cathedral of Our Merciful Saviour, Faribault, Minnesota, where he remained until he accepted a call to Christ Church, Springfield, Massachusetts, in 1907, leaving there in 1910 to become Rector of Grace Church, New York City. He was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of Massachusetts on October 31, 1922, by Bishops

Lawrence, Tucker and Babcock, becoming Diocesan on June 1, 1927, when Bishop Lawrence resigned. As Chairman of the Committee on Revision of the Prayer Book he was well known throughout the Church and had endeared himself very greatly to his Diocese during his short Episcopate.

HERBERT SHIPMAN, Suffragan Bishop of New York, died very suddenly at his home from a chronic heart condition on March 23, 1930, in the sixty-first year of his age. He had just returned from officiating at a service at Calvary Church. He was born in Lexington, Kentucky, on August 3, 1869, graduating from Columbia University in 1890 and from the General Theological Seminary in 1894. He was made Deacon that same year and ordained to the Priesthood the year following. His first work was as Assistant Minister at Christ Church, New York City, where he served until 1896 when he was appointed Chaplain at West Point Military Academy. In 1905 he was elected Assistant Rector of Christ Church, becoming Rector two years later. In 1916 he resumed his Army work, serving on the Mexican front and in the World War, where he became ultimately Senior Chaplain of the First Army Corps. After the War he returned to Christ Church and was consecrated Suffragan Bishop on November 30, 1921, by Bishops Tuttle, Manning and Lines. Kindly, simple in his living, with a real genius for making friendships, his sterling manhood marked him as one who served, as one who loved and was loved.

Of Priests of this Diocese:

EDGAR CAMPBELL, Rector of Saint Alban's Church, Roxborough, Philadelphia, died in the Episcopal Hospital on May 17, 1929, aged sixty-two years. He was born in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, on March 11, 1867, graduating from Lehigh University and the General Theological Seminary. He was made Deacon in 1892 and ordained Priest the following year.

From 1892 to 1894 he was Missionary at Christ Church, Forest City, Pennsylvania; from 1894 to 1900, Rector of Saint Peter's Church, Phoenixville; from 1900 to 1906, Priest-in-charge of Holy Trinity, Lansdale; from 1906 to 1908, Managing Editor of The Church Standard; from 1909 to 1912, Rector of Christ Church, Woodbury, New Jersey; from 1912 to 1926, Rector of Trinity Church, Swedesboro. In 1926 he returned to this Diocese, being Rector of the Church of The Atonement, Morton, for a few months, when he accepted the call to Saint Alban's Church, Roxborough.

JOHNSON HUBBELL, a Retired Priest of the Diocese, died at Metuchen, N. J., on May 31, 1929, in the eighty-eighth year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia on July 16, 1841, receiving his early education at State College and leaving before his graduation to enlist for the Civil War. Brought up in the Presbyterian Church, he was ordained Presbyter in the Reformed Episcopal Church, but decided to seek Holy Orders in the Church and was made Deacon in 1889 and ordained Priest in 1891 by Bishop Whitaker. He was Rector at Grace Church, Hulmeville, in 1891 and Missionary at the Church of The Advent, Hatboro, in 1892 and 1893.

EDWIN JAMES HUMES, Rector Emeritus of Saint Paul's Church, Aramingo, died on Monday, July 1, 1929, in the seventy-seventh year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia on June 9, 1853, being brought up in the Church of The Good Shepherd, Kensington, and graduating from the Philadelphia Divinity School in 1878. He was made Deacon the same year and ordained to the Priesthood the year following. For two years he was Rector at Columbus, Ohio, coming to Christ Church, Eddington, Pennsylvania, in 1879. Ten years later he accepted a call to Saint Peter's Church, Hazelton, returning to this Diocese in 1895 when he became Rector of Saint Paul's Church, Aramingo, being elected Rector Emeritus in 1925.

WALTER ANTONIO MATOS, Rector of Trinity Church, Swarthmore, died at the Episcopal Hospital on August 9, 1929, in the fifty-sixth year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia on October 31, 1874, receiving his early education in the Public Schools and the Central High School. He graduated from the Divinity School in Philadelphia in 1898, being made Deacon that year and ordained Priest the year following, both by Bishop Whitaker. He served his Diaconate at Trinity Mission, Swarthmore, and became Priest-in-charge after his Ordination, accepting the Rectorship when the Mission became a Parish in 1920. Thus he had the distinction of exercising his whole Ministry in one Parish. The Burial Service was held at Swarthmore on Tuesday, August 13, being conducted by the Rev. R. K. Yerkes, D.D., and the Rev. R. J. Morris, who represented the Diocese in the absence of the Bishop. Over twenty of the Clergy were present despite the fact that so many were absent on vacation, while the Church could not contain the congregation. He had been in the Hospital about three weeks and ill for less than two months. Of a mathematical mind his services were always freely given to the Diocese in estimating Quotas, etc., while he was a well-known amateur astronomer and did some teaching at Swarthmore College.

CHARLES ALFRED RICKSECKER, Priest-in-charge of All Saints Mission, Darby, died on Friday, September 20, 1929, in the seventy-sixth year of his age. He was born in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, on April 1, 1854, receiving his early education in Nazareth Hall Military Academy and at the Moravian Seminary, Bethlehem. After a short ministry in the Moravian Church, he was made Deacon in 1885 by Bishop Stevens and ordained to the Priesthood the same year by Bishop Lee, acting for the Bishop of Pennsylvania. From 1885 to 1888 he was Rector at the Church of The Good Samaritan, Paoli, when he accepted a call to Saint John's Church, Mount Morris, New York, where he remained until 1893, when he went to Grace Church, Buffalo. In 1902 he returned to the Diocese as Rector of the Church of The Mediator, where he remained until 1905 when the Church was sold and he accepted the appointment at Darby.

RICHARD MARTIN DOHERTY, a Retired Priest of this Diocese, died in Miami, Florida, on October 20, 1929, in the seventy-second year of his age. He was born in Belfast, Ireland, on May 8, 1858, and came to Canada when he was twelve years old. He received his theological education at Nashotah House and the Seabury Divinity School, where he graduated in 1887. He was made Deacon on July 8th of that year and ordained Priest the year following, both by Bishop Hare. Until May, 1899, he was in charge of the Church of The Redeemer at Sayre, Pennsylvania, when he became Rector of Saint Martin's Church, Marcus Hook, where he remained until his retirement from active work in June, 1928.

WILLIAM EDWARD WARREN, Priest-in-charge of Saint Luke's Mission, Eddystone, and of Saint James' Mission, Prospect Park, died very suddenly on Thanksgiving Day morning, November 28, 1929, in the sixty-first year of his age. He was born at Key West, Florida, on August 30, 1869, and graduated from the University of Minnesota and the Seabury Divinity School. He was made Deacon in 1901 and ordained Priest in 1903, both by Bishop Weed. The early years of his Ministry were passed in Florida where he had charge of several Missions near Jacksonville. Later he went to New Mexico as Missionary with headquarters at Saint John's Church, Albuquerque, serving also as Archdeacon, on the Standing Committee, as an Examining Chaplain and Deputy to the General Convention, leaving in 1919 to become Rector of Epiphany Church, Independence, Kansas. In 1921 he came to this Diocese as Rector of the Church of The Advent, Kennett Square, with charge of Saint John's Church, Kelton, and Saint Andrew's Mission, Oxford, removing to Eddystone in 1922.

JOSEPH SHERLOCK, Rector of the Church of Saint John Chrysostom, Philadelphia, died very suddenly on February 25, 1930, in the sixty-ninth year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia on January 25, 1862, receiving his early education at Rugby Academy and the University of Pennsylvania. He graduated from the General Theological Seminary in 1886, when he was made Deacon and ordained to the Priesthood the year following. From 1886 to 1889 he was Curate at Mount Calvary Church, Baltimore, Maryland, after which he went to Grace Church, Weehauken, New Jersey, coming to Saint John's Church in 1891.

HARRY RANSOME, Rector Emeritus of Christ Church, Media, died at the Georgetown Hospital on May 4, 1930, in his sixty-third year, following an operation from which he did not rally. He was born in London, England, and received his education at the College of London. He was made Deacon and ordained to the Priesthood in 1896 by Bishop Nicholson. In 1897 he was Assistant Minister at Saint Mark's Church, Philadelphia, leaving there to become Rector of Saint Michael's Church, Wilmington, Delaware. In 1900 he accepted a call to Saint Andrew's Church, Buffalo, New York, where he remained until 1907. For the next two years he studied at Oxford University, England, returning to this country in 1909 to become Rector of Christ Church, Media, retiring from active duty in 1929. He served as an Examining Chaplain and on various Diocesan Committees.

Of Deputies to the Last Convention:

JAMES MAYERS WOODRUFF died May 28, 1929, aged seventy-two years. He was a member of the Vestry of Christ Church, Germantown, for 29 years, serving as Rector's Warden for 19 years, a Deputy to this Convention from 1913.

GEORGE F. HEWLETT died on August 3, 1929. Originally a member of the Vestry of Trinity Church, Southwark, he became a Vestryman of Zion Church in 1919 when the Parishes were combined, serving as Rector's Warden. He was a Deputy to the Convention from 1917.

After fifty years of ministrations in an over-churched district, this attractive Chapel has been closed. Following the death of the late Vicar in December, 1928, the usual services were maintained until Trinity Sunday, May 26th, 1929, and on the Thursdays in Lent. Several circular letters were addressed to those listed as interested, bespeaking advice as to the future. The returns revealed but eleven persons in favor of continuing; and these could pledge but one tenth of the estimated necessary budget expense. Accordingly, the Chapel Committee on October 16th resolved not to proceed further, and recommended to the Vestry of Christ Church to take control of the property and dispose of it in such wise as to them seemed best. A closing commemorative service was held by the Rector on All Saints Day, and the building was sold. The fifty remaining Communicants are identifying themselves with various parishes nearby and in the suburbs.

The beautiful memorials are being bestowed with sensitive concern for the wishes of those involved; and the accumulated funds will be scrupulously administered in perpetuity in consonance with the purpose for which they were given.

"Dear Lord, we thank Thee, that all good things do forever live, and that immortality is of the essence of love."

LOUIS C. WASHBURN, Rector.

APPENDIX H

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the Year 1929

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the year 1929 audited is submitted herewith. The Diocese promised the National Council for maintenance $229,000, which was the amount asked for by the National Council, and it has paid this quota in full.

The Diocese was also able to meet its maintenance obligations of $170,857.21 by retaining as its share of divisible receipts $163,488.61 and refunds of $7,368.60, and has reduced its deficit from 1928 of $11,996.76 to $7,312.20, due to specially designated gifts for this purpose.

The total divisible funds during the year 1929 were $373,635.39, an increase of $27,342 over 1928 and the largest divisible funds received during the past ten years.

We have endeavored to reduce the overdrafts by asking churches to remit each month, or at least with more regularity, and below is a table which shows the number of times remittances have been made by churches during the year 1929. The Diocese must pay out with almost entire regularity nearly the same amounts each month and if the parishes do not remit with like regularity the result is an overdraft of the account:

Number of Churches Remitting per annum	Number of Remittances per annum
11	10

Number of Churches Remitting per annum	Number of Remittances per annum

The Treasurer and the Assistant Treasurer desire to again express their grateful appreciation to Messrs. Drexel and Company for the continuation of the very advantageous arrangements whereby a credit to a limited amount has been extended so that overdrafts may be made, and to the Parishes and Missions and Woman's Auxiliaries as well as other financial agencies of the Diocese for the ready assistance in the preparation of the records comprising this report, and to the financial staff in the Treasurer's Office for its efficient and faithful service throughout the year.

APPENDIX I

Report of the Executive Council

WORK OF THE EXECUTIVE OFFICE

The Executive Office comprises the Office of the Executive Secretary and Field Secretary, the Treasurer's Office and the Publicity Department.

(1) For the first time in the history of the Diocese of Pennsylvania the Quota ($229,000) asked of the Diocese by the National Council was paid in full. Although the Quota had been reduced from former years, it was a venture of faith on the part of the Executive Council to accept this larger amount; for the money was not in sight. The Bishop and Council felt that they were representing the sentiment of the Diocese and so it has proved, for it was made possible to a great extent by the individual appeal of Bishop Garland, and the activities of the Deans and Lay Members of the Executive Council in co-operation with the Vestries of the various Parishes and Missions and the Woman's Auxiliary. The venture of faith has been well worth while; and Pennsylvania's united effort has been very inspiring to the whole Church.

(2) The Treasurer's Office of your Corporation has received about one million dollars during the year ($964,251.37). It has been expended by order of the Bishop, the Diocesan Convention and the Executive Council; 12,763 checks and vouchers have passed through the office. The work has grown year by year. The Divisible Funds in 1929 were $27,342 over 1928 and the largest Divisible Funds received during the past ten years. Last year there were ten different funds (Missionary, Episcopal, Convention, Sustentation, Church House, Bishop's Residence, Christmas, Church Extension, Church Pension and Diocesan Campaign). This year another has been added, namely, the Church Properties Fire Insurance Fund. The office overhead was 2.1 per cent.

(3) The attempt to adopt the 1930 Budget at an earlier date was successful and all Parishes and Missions received their quotas before November 1. There is some demand to have quotas even earlier, and every effort will be made to satisfy this demand.

(4) Building contracts and operations were supervised at Holy Sacrament, Highland Park; Holy Trinity, Lansdale; Advent, Hatboro; Redeemer, Springfield; Resurrection, Mayfair; St. James, Prospect Park, St. John's, Essington; and St. Giles, Stonehurst.

(5) The Church Properties Fire Insurance Corporation having been organized by Mr. J. P. Morgan and others in an effort to benefit the whole Church, the Financial Secretary has given much time to working out the details for this Diocese.

(6) The Publicity Department has again published The Church News at a profit. It is the only Church paper in the United States with such a record. This year a copy has been sent to every Vestryman in the Diocese. This Department also prepared the three Church Extension Fund Calls from which has been received $9,549.35.

(7) The Missionary Cause has been presented through the Diocese by the Field Secretary. This is made possible by the Clergy, who have gladly opened their pulpits to the Message. Again he wishes to thank them for this privilege and for their unfailing courtesy and hospitality.

THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

Diocesan Missions includes the Missionary work carried on in the six Convocations and the Racial work among the Jews, the Italians, the Poles and the Colored.

On October 5, 1929, the Reverend Francis M. Taitt was consecrated Bishop and to him was assigned as part of his work the Missionary work of the Diocese. With his knowledge of the Diocese and his experience as rector of a parish and Dean of the Convocation of Chester for twenty-five years we feel that additional progress will be made. We welcome him as our leader and assure him our earnest support and co-operation.

The trend of population for years has been towards the suburbs and we have established missions and secured sites in many of these sections the past year. Two new sites were secured; one in the West Oak Lane section; and another in Yeadon.

The following work was completed in 1929: Holy Sacrament, Highland Park; a Parish Building for Holy Trinity, Lansdale; Parish House for Church of the Advent, Hatboro; the first unit for the Church of the Redeemer, Springfield; the Resurrection, Mayfair, now a self-supporting Parish; a rectory and enlargement of the church for S. James, Prospect Park; church for S. John's, Essington; and a rectory for S. James, Langhorne. The Church of the Holy Comforter at Aronimink completed the first unit of its new group of church buildings and is occupying the same. In the opinion of the Department it would be well if the the Diocese could assist this Parish in completing its plant.

While we have been emphasizing the need of new missions, we realize that one of the greatest problems of our Diocese at the present time is the question of churches in certain sections of our city where the population has changed, and where there are not sufficient funds to carry on. Needless to say, the Church should remain to minister to the people, but we feel that the Diocese should have some way to assist these Parishes. A combination of certain Parishes would help some, but the problem is a Diocesan one, and one that merits the consideration of all interested Church people.

During the year we were able to secure four new automobiles for our missionaries, and we feel that the Diocesan machines are in better condition now than they have been for several years. The Diocese owns thirteen automobiles and insures them against fire and theft, damage to property and personal liability. An allowance is made by the Diocese for maintenance to those operating these machines. In addition to the machines owned by the Diocese, we contribute towards the upkeep of five other automobiles that are used by the men to assist them in their work.

Concerning our work among the foreign born, Archdeacon Bullitt writes: "L'Emmanuello has been moved to S. Elisabeth's Church, where its congregations are increasing; and now, in the center of a large Italian population, the prospect for its future is hopeful. S. Mary of the Annunciation has outgrown its small building and efforts are being made to provide a larger chapel, so that a large part of its congregation may not have to stand through its services."

"S. Mary's, Manayunk, has been placed under the charge of the Polish Missionary at Conshohocken, who reports growth in both missions. The Advent, however, is losing ground, as the Poles are moving out of its neighborhood. The attendance, interest and gifts at the Holy Redeemer are all increasing and the purchase of a church for it is justifying itself."

In reporting on the Colored Work, Archdeacon Phillips states that the work is being carried on in eight places by six Clergymen (as a whole, the work is most encouraging and the Clergy in charge of these missions feel that some of them should become self-supporting, and are working towards that end).

Mr. Samuel H. Warnock, who has charge of The Church Extension Fund, makes the following report: "During the year 1929 the total receipts of The Church Extension Fund amounted to $9,893.35 as compared with $10,256.76 in the previous year. The total includes receipts from the three Calls issued in 1929, plus a number of delayed payments on subscriptions to previous Calls and a few payments on Calls to be issued in 1930. Receipts on each of the 1929 Calls were: S. Matthew Mission, Roosevelt Boulevard, $3,302.53; Advent Mission, Hatboro, $3,193.66; the new mission in West Oak Lane, $3,053.16. During the year 1929 the membership of the Fund lost by death a number of subscribers, and while a number of new members were added in 1929, the total receipts in subscriptions from the latter was not sufficient to meet the loss of income due to the deaths among former subscribers."

You will find attached the Treasurer's report and a detailed statement of the Missionary work in our several Convocations, prepared with considerable trouble by the Deans, together with a report of the Treasurers of the Woman's Aid of Convocations. We would urge a careful survey of the same by the members of the Council and the communicants and friends of the Church.

THE DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Five outstanding items are noteworthy amidst a wide variety of constructive work.

1. The Church Schools of the Diocese contributed through the Lenten and Missionary Offering $73,120.93, and for the Bishop's Bricks Fund $1,214.93. Fifty-six Parishes sent 1888 gifts to 15 mission stations in the Philippines and in the Domestic Field, while 35 Parishes, in addition, provided 1973 Christmas stockings and 368 gifts to 24 Diocesan institutions.

2. The Commission on Teacher Training has sponsored the formation of two branches of the Normal School, one at S. Simeon's Church, and the other at S. Mark's Church, Frankford.

At the annual commencement of the Normal School, held on April 11, 1929, in the Chapel of the Mediator, 21 persons received Diplomas of the National Accredited Teachers' Association. At this commencement a religious drama, "Joy to the World," written by members of the class in religious drama, was presented.

3. The Commission on Students has been instrumental in securing the appointment of Mr. Frank P. Foote, a student at the Philadelphia Divinity School, as student-pastor for Episcopal students at Temple University. This appointment has the approval of President Beury, of Temple. The Rev. Norman VanPelt Levis extends the hospitality of the Church of the Incarnation for service and social meeting.

The exhaustive survey of the several colleges within the Diocese has been made, which shows that the Rectors near the various colleges are earnestly working with the students.

4. The Department, through the Director, has co-operated with interdenominational groups in the study of the possibility of securing "released time" from public schools for religious education. It did not endorse a petition made through other channels to the Board of Education for such release of pupils, because it is convinced that Churches are not at present prepared, either with curriculum or with teaching force, to use such time effectively if it could be obtained. It does feel, however, that the Church should earnestly endeavor to improve the standards of the Church School and advance its efficiency by a better use of the time already at the disposal of the Church.

5. At the suggestion of the Director, the Philadelphia Divinity School will offer some "Refresher Courses" for clergy at a brief summer conference to be held at the Divinity School from June 9 to June 12, 1930. The purpose of this conference is to "refresh" the clergy by presenting to them developments in various fields of thought and study in recent years, and by providing opportunity for discussion of vital parochial problems.

The Director accepted 56 invitations to visit Parishes, Church Schools and organizations, for purposes of preaching, teaching, conference and observation, in 36 parishes and missions.

He represents the Department at the triennial National Conference of Religious Education Leaders, and on the Provincial Commission on Religious Education, by which he has been appointed an advisory member of the National Department of Religious Education. He is also a member of the Curriculum Committee under the auspices of the National Department.

Office conferences have greatly increased in number and expanded in scope during the year 1929. Inquiries and extended conferences ranging from minute details of Church School administration to consideration of the far-reaching aspects of Religious Education as a vocation are constant.

This, the Department feels, is an indication that the office at Room 30 is rendering real service to the Diocese,—service which is in growing demand.

THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICE AND INSTITUTIONS

The Department completed a study of the Institutions of the Diocese early in the year, and placed the materials gathered by three committees in the hands of the Publicity Department, with the recommendation that the information be put into such form as will make it readily accessible and readable. It is hoped that two purposes may be served by this: First, it will serve as a guide to those who are seeking the help of our Institutions; and, secondly, it will attract more friends and supporters to the Institutions.

The Department made a study of the Candy White List, referred to it by the Consumers' League of Eastern Pennsylvania and sent a letter to the Clergy and the Church School Superintendents in December concerning this situation.

The most important problem which has been referred to the Department recently is that connected with the Juvenile Courts and the care of children committed by those Courts. After investigating this matter carefully for several months, the Department recommended to the Executive Council that a worker be secured for a trial period to ascertain what need there is for our Church's help in this field. In January, 1930, the Executive Council authorized the engaging of a worker and provided for her salary for a period of three months.

The Department has sent representatives to three important Conferences during the year: the National Conference on Social Work at San Francisco, California; a Conference for Rural Workers at Washington College, Maryland; and the State Council of Churches at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

The Department has continued membership in the Philadelphia Federation of Churches; the Philadelphia Conference of Social Agencies; the Penal Affairs Council; and the Central Committee of Social Service Departments in Pennsylvania.

THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

The major activity of the Department of Publicity is The Church News, which has for its objects the promotion of Diocesan unity and the Missionary and benevolent work of the Diocese. It is a pleasure to report that for the seventh consecutive year The Church News has been successful in closing its fiscal year without any financial aid from the Diocese. For this good showing we wish to acknowledge our thanks to the Business Manager, Mr. Charles H. Clarke, who reports that for the year ending June 30, 1929, the paper showed a profit of $184.00. The efficient work of our Business Manager is ably matched by that of our Editor-in-Chief, the Rev. George Copeland, and by our Managing Editor, Mr. Samuel H. Warnock.

In October, 1929, the Executive Council authorized the mailing of The Church News to all Vestrymen of Parishes and the officers of Mission Committees. In co-operation with the Executive Council, The Church News arranged to carry out the plan at a figure representing approximately the actual cost of printing and mailing, 75 cents a year per copy. The Executive Office cares for that part of the labor incident to addressing the envelopes for mailing, and maintenance of the subscription list. In putting the plan into execution, The Church News was able to reduce the production cost to seventy-two cents. Since starting this system, a number of letters have been received from Vestrymen receiving the paper expressing their appreciation of the action of the Executive Council. In several instances they have sent in their subscriptions at the regular rate of One Dollar per year. In all such cases, these names have been removed from the list subscribed for through the Executive Council.

Our Director of Publicity, Mr. Samuel H. Warnock, has maintained most cordial friendly relations with the city daily newspapers. They freely consult him concerning questions which come up in their reports of Church news, and find his assistance always reliable. He also supplies news to the local correspondents of the various national Church weeklies, and himself acts as Diocesan correspondent of the Department of Publicity of the National Council.

Through our Director of Publicity this Department has assisted in the publication of a series of pamphlets prepared and issued by the Field Department, containing special information about the work in several Mission Fields.

During the year 1929 a total of 485 meetings of all kinds were held in the Church House, compared with a total of 426 in 1928. In all but a very few instances previous notice of the desire to hold the meeting was registered. In the few cases where no notice was given in advance, it was possible to provide quarters without any serious difficulty. Mr. Warnock is always ready with his expert advice on publicity and his willing help in other matters, and is constantly assisting the Clergy, laymen and women in many different ways. The Department feels that these efforts are of real service, and is glad to note that they are constantly being sought.

THE COMMISSION ON RECRUITING FOR THE MINISTRY

The Commission has allotted to it in the annual Diocesan budget a sum of $4,300.00, all of which is spent in aiding students in the pursuit of their studies for the ministry. To no student is a larger grant made than $200.00 for each academic year. This limit is made necessary by the number of students. To receive such aid from the Diocese, a student must be either a postulant or a candidate for orders.

So far as the information of the Commission goes, Pennsylvania is in the van among all the Dioceses of the Church in the matter of recruiting for the Ministry. It probably is not too much to say that this result is obtained, in part at least, by the fact that the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese have a place of resort such as the Commission to turn to for aid when worthy young men apply for the Ministry.

Most of these young men are without private means, and most of the Parishes are not able to aid them much, or at all, as they have no special funds for this purpose. It is just there that this common diocesan fund and enterprise functions.

Without its aid some, perhaps many, of these young men would be lost to the ministry of the Church.

THE FIELD DEPARTMENT

The principal activities of the Field Department during the current year have been:

1. A Missionary Dinner at the Penn Athletic Club to the Clergy and Lay representatives of the Parishes. The Laymen were invited to come as local representatives of the Department in their respective Parishes. Their duties are the distribution of our literature and the promotion of collections and payments of the Parish quota.

2. The publishing of Missionary Leaflets each month, three of which have already appeared.

3. The Conferences at the Church Farm School for Clergy and Laymen, the principal outcome of which was the appointment of a Laymen's Committee to be responsible for further promotion of education regarding the Church's work and the collection of money for it.

4. The raising of the quota for 1929 was made possible to a great extent by the individual appeal of Bishop Garland and the activities of the Deans and Lay members of the Executive Council, representing their respective convocations, in co-operation with the Vestries of the various Parishes and missions in those Convocations and the Women's Auxiliary. The records show that the Parishes and missions gave approximately $27,000.00 more in this year than in the previous one which is a most encouraging advance.

THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

In June the Bishop announced the organization of The Church Properties Fire Insurance Corporation, and the Executive Council, by resolution, ordered that the Missions of this Diocese should be insured in the new insurance corporation when the present policies expire.

The Church Foundation who hold title to these properties had no organization to handle the volume of detailed insurance work necessary to operate this business satisfactorily, and therefore the Financial Secretary was authorized to represent the Insurance Company in this Diocese, and with his assistance the work is going on smoothly.

Quite a number of Parishes whose title is in the name of The Church Foundation have also availed themselves of the new insurance company, and this also has added to the clerical work of the office.

THE FINANCE DEPARTMENT

The Treasurer's report calls attention to the financial results of the business for the year. It will be noted that receipts from Parishes, Schools, Woman's Auxiliaries, Individuals, etc., applying on the quota were $388,884.98, an increase of $33,002.90 over 1928.

The Sunday School Lenten Offerings were $73,120.93, a decrease of $641.59 over the previous year.

The Divisible Funds were $373,635.39, an increase of $27,342 over 1928, and the largest Divisible Funds received during the past ten years. From the Divisible Funds there was sent to the National Council $210,146.78 as against $185,322.80 in 1928, and through individual gifts a sufficient amount was contributed to enable the Diocese to pay its full quota of $229,000.00 to the National Council. It is also gratifying to know that the Diocese was able to meet its obligations and also reduce its overdraft from $11,996.76 on January 1, 1929, to $7,312.20 on January 1, 1930, due to specially designated gifts for this purpose. Against this, unpaid collectable loans total $7,856.85.

The method approved by the last General Convention for distributing Diocesan quotas was used in apportioning the quotas over the Diocese for the year 1929, which resulted in the smaller Parishes paying a lower percentage than the larger Parishes, and this method has met with very little criticism.

CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The year 1929 spells progress and development along many lines. The outstanding event in the life of the Convocation was the elevation to the Episcopate of one who had been its Dean for the last twenty-five years. There was no priest more beloved than Dean Francis M. Taitt and every member of the Convocation feels that he has given his leader to the Church in this Diocese to be the Father in God of all our Convocations in their missionary endeavors.

By resolution of the Executive Council, the responsibility for the missionary quota has been placed more directly under the supervision of the Convocations. A laymen's committee, under the chairmanship of Mr. C. Fenno Hoffman, by suggesting new goals to be reached to some parishes, in view of the apparent deficit in the total missionary giving of the Diocese for the current year, took some of the burden from those Parishes utterly unable to give their full quota. As a result of this and with an additional $1500 from some special appeals, the Convocation reached the total of $80,033.42, about $9000 over its missionary quota. This committee will continue its work and determine just how much may fairly be expected from this Convocation for the year 1930.

Progress has been made at Holy Sacrament Mission, Highland Park, under the indefatigable leadership of its Rector, the Rev. Geo. W. Barnes. On the fourth Sunday in Advent, 1929, Bishop Taitt set apart and solemnly dedicated the new and beautiful Church, at which time many memorials were also blessed. A great deal of the work is being done by the men of the Parish who will complete the basement of the Church, the ladies furnishing it with modern equipment.

At Prospect Park the new Rectory and enlarged Church and Sunday School room of St. James' Mission have been practically completed, which fill a long-felt need and mean rapid progress for the future.

The sale of the lot at St. Giles', Stonehurst, has been most successfully terminated and the building of a beautiful group (Church, Parish House, and Rectory) is being pushed rapidly to completion on the splendid new site.

The fine new building at The Redeemer, Springfield, has been finished, as also the basement of the Church of The Holy Comforter, Aronomink, in which services have been held since October.

The project of St. John's, Essington, has been completed and its faithful and devoted congregation are worshipping in the new building.

Mr. Hornby is doing good work at St. Mary's, Warwick, as well as looking after two other Missions in other Dioceses. Mr. Powell is still carrying on his effective community service at St. Joseph's, Gladwyn. Mr. Bellis is serving his three stations—Advent, Kennett Square; Kelton and Oxford—and covers a field twenty miles in extent most faithfully.

The Rev. Geo. B. Krantz, Jr., went to All Saints', Darby, in October, and feels the work to have promise of a great future upon the foundations laid by its former Rector, the Rev. Charles A. Ricksecker. In December the congregation made repairs to the Rectory costing $1000, which was nearly all paid for by January, 1930.

The Rev. Carl L. Appelberg was sent to St. Martin's, Marcus Hook, as Deacon, under the Dean of the Convocation. The Church at Marcus Hook and the House at Linwood have been renovated. Congregations are excellent and the work is prospering. It is planned to put St. Luke's, Eddystone, under his care.

Ascension, Parkesburg, is maintaining a good work under its new Rector, the Rev. Frank Goostray, who has charge of the Parish at Coatesville.

The Rev. Geo. S. McKinley, who took charge of St. Mark's, Honey Brook, and St. John's Pequea (Compass), on January 1, 1929, reports a considerable growth in the Sunday Schools at both places and finds considerable encouragement in his rural field. On September 28, Bishop Garland preached the sermon and administered the Holy Communion, the 200th Anniversary of St. John's Parish. A large congregation was present. In the afternoon there were nearly 400 people and thirteen pastors of various denominations who felicitated the Rector and congregation on the long history of the Parish. This history has been written and published at a cost of $903, all of which is practically paid.

During the past year the Convocation has suffered severe losses in the death of three of its well known and beloved priests. The Rev. Walter A. Matos, Rector of Trinity Church, Swarthmore, after a short illness, entered eternal life in August of 1929. He had done effective work for the past twenty-five years, a man of brilliant attainments, an authority in mathematics and astronomy, of kindly disposition.

The Rev. Charles A. Ricksecker had served at All Saints', Darby, from February, 1912, to September, 1929, seventeen years, dying at the age of 76. He was a man young for his years, active in mind and body, devoted to his work, a faithful pastor and leader of his people.

The Rev. William E. Warren had served at St. James', Prospect Park, and St. Luke's, Eddystone, since 1923, a period of six years, until his unexpected death in November. He too had done a faithful, consecrated work and was much beloved in both Missions. The Sunday School and Woman's Guild, at Eddystone, under his leadership, have been most promising as well as the work of the whole congregation at Prospect Park. Both have been carrying on effectively due to the foundations he laid.

May the souls of these faithful servants of Christ rest in peace, and may light perpetual shine upon them.

At the October meeting of the Convocation the Rector of the Church of St. Asaph, Bala, a son in the Faith to Bishop Taitt was elected Dean.

Signed,

BENJAMIN N. BIRD
Dean

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE CONVOCATION

1. The spring and fall meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Chester were inspiring, and very well attended, with an average of 350 members representing 38 parishes and missions.

2. The spring meeting was held at the Historic old church, St. John's, Pequea, which was celebrating its 200th anniversary.

The fall meeting was held in Chester where it was privileged to be entertained at St. Paul's, Bishop Taitt's church. A reception to our new Dean, the Reverend Benjamin N. Bird, Rector of St. Asaph's Church, Bala, was held at Holy Trinity, West Chester. Mrs. Williamson presided at a special meeting held before the reception.

3. Seven new names were added to the Memorial Members' Roll. The Auxiliary met its Pledge of $2,000.00 to the Diocesan Fund and also presented a contribution of $500.00 to the work at St. James, Prospect Park.

4. It was prayfully hoped that the new year before the Woman's Auxiliary, may be one of usefulness and consecrated work for our Master.

THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

There are at present fifteen Missions in this Convocation, six being in the city of Philadelphia and nine in Bucks County. As the population of the Convocation is increasing rapidly, and is likely to continue doing so, we should be constantly on the lookout for suitable locations which may be secured for new Missions. But these sites should be centrally located and widely removed one from another, for in the present age of easy transportation, and we may add, alas! of a somewhat lax attendance at Church services, that the great need is to have fewer and stronger parishes. The wisdom of this has been abundantly proved by the unique growth of the Church of The Resurrection, Mayfair, which, within two years from the time that it was started in a rented house in June, 1927, became a self-supporting Parish, and within two and a half years of its beginning entertained the Convocation of Germantown as its guest. We congratulate the Vestry and members of the Parish on the splendid success they have achieved, which is partly due to our being first on the field in a rapidly developing section of our city, and we pray that God will continue to grant them His blessing.

St. Matthew's Mission at Oxford Circle, on the North East Boulevard, has under the wise and energetic direction of the Rev. Wm. O. Roome, assisted by a band of noble men and women, made steady and consistent progress. The Mission has acquired a strong membership, and has organized many Church societies, so that it is entitled to have as soon as possible a Parish House erected on the fine site which the Diocese possesses close to the Boulevard. The accommodation of the rented store is frequently overcrowded by those who attend the services and the Sunday School.

The Diocese owns a large and well situated piece of ground in the West Oak Lane section near Ogontz Avenue and City Line, where a Mission should have been started months ago, and would have been but for the lack of men and means. This is a great pity, because several of our Church people, who live in that vicinity, have been asking for services to be held in that densely populated neighborhood.

The other three Missions in Philadelphia County—Ascension, Rhawnhurst; St. Andrew's, Somerton, and St. Gabriel's, Feltonville, have continued their good work during the past year.

The Rev. Waldo D. Parker has taken Dr. Prevost's place as Priest-in-charge of the group of Missions in Bucks County, where the work seems to be progressing satisfactorily. We have secured a good rectory at Langhorne; the services are well attended and the prospect promising. The buildings belonging to St. Wilfrid's at Dolington, a few miles from Newtown, have been repaired and put in good condition, and the Rev. Amos Goddard, Rector of St. Luke's, Newtown, has revived the interest of the people both in the Sunday School and in the Church services. The future of this Mission looks bright.

The services in the other Missions in Bucks County, namely, Emmanuel, Quakertown; Grace, Hulmeville; Incarnation, Morrisville; St. Andrew's, Yardley; St. Paul's, Edgeley; St. Philip's, New Hope, and Trinity, Solebury, have been well maintained. There are phases of the work in some of these Missions that should elicit our special interest, such as the social work connected with the fine Community Hall at Morrisville, and the Schools for boys and girls near to St. Philip's, New Hope.

We most heartily congratulate our one Colored Mission, that of St. Barnabas, Germantown, on its noble achievement in commemoration of its twenty-fifth anniversary. The services were largely attended, and the money contributed was very gratifying. We anticipate that before long St. Barnabas, under the energetic leadership of the Rev. W. S. Thomas, will become a self-supporting Parish.

The Convocation of Germantown has one Mission among the Poles, that of St. Mary's, Manayunk, which is under the wise care of the Rev. Edward M. Baczewski, and has witnessed a good growth during the past year. We gladly avail ourselves of this opportunity of expressing our thanks to the Rector and Vestry of St. Stephen's, Wissahickon, for kindly granting them the use of their Parish House for Sunday and week-day schools.

We desire to express our heartfelt thankfulness to Mr. Casper Wister Haines and Miss Haines for the use for several years of their beautiful grounds for the Annual Garden Party, so ably managed by the members of our Woman's Aid. These gatherings are most helpful, not only for the financial assistance they provide, but also for the kindly social feeling they develop among the many members of the Convocation who gather for these happy occasions.

We are most grateful to the officers and members of the Woman's Aid of the Convocation, under the able and active leadership of Miss Elizabeth S. Brown, for the enthusiastic work they have accomplished during the past year, and for the great financial help they have given, especially for the $2000 they have contributed towards the Diocesan Campaign Fund. We are glad to append their report, and we ask that all the Parishes and Missions in the Convocation will send representatives to the meetings of the Woman's Aid at our Convocational gatherings, and especially that they will do their best to make the Garden Party to be held at Wyck, Germantown, the residence of Mr. Casper W. Haines, in June next a great success.

Gifts and Pledges paid	2,300.00
Total	$2,900.00

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

Two of our Missions are rejoicing in the completion of new Parish Houses. On October 31st the new Parish House at Advent, Hatboro, was dedicated by Bishop Taitt, in connection with the fall meeting of the Convocation, in the presence of representatives from all the Parishes and Missions of the Convocation. This practical and beautiful building, planned by the architects for the Church and in perfect harmony therewith, is already proving a great asset to the Parish, providing adequate facilities for the Sunday School and the work of the Mission generally. The Parish House of Holy Trinity, Lansdale, was started during the year and is practically completed. It will be dedicated and begin its work early in the new year. Both these Parish Houses represent the culmination of many years' plans and work, and their completion at this time was made possible through the Diocesan Campaign Fund, which supplied about half the cost in each case.

On June 1st the Rev. Charles F. Scofield, Missionary-in-charge of Epiphany, Royersford, was compelled by ill health to relinquish that work, which he carried on in conjunction with his duties as Rector of St. James' Church, Evansburg. Mr. Scofield has also been the faithful Secretary of the Convocation for the last five years. We shall miss him very much and we hope his health may be sufficiently restored to enable him to exercise his ministry again in the near future. The services at Royersford have been conducted by the Lay Reader, Mr. Edward Kaltenbach. Dr. Anthony, Rector of St. Peter's Church, Phoenixville, has generously taken care of the service of Holy Communion monthly and has also given freely of his time and assistance in looking after the interests of the Mission until other arrangements can be made.

Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills, has had one of its best years, under the devoted leadership of the Rev. William Powell. The Sunday School has grown, there was a good Confirmation Class and the people are unitedly supporting the work with encouraging zeal.

The Rev. Ambrose Baczewski, in charge of Holy Trinity Polish Mission, Conshohocken, reports 58 families and 168 communicants, and believes that the work is now firmly established and in position to go ahead steadily in its ministry to a large group who are interested and dependable. There were eighteen confirmations and they have eighty-three in the Sunday School.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The Missions of this Convocation have had a surprisingly good year, and the general condition of the work is most encouraging. Our problem is to hold our ground and strengthen the existing Missions in the face of rapid changes and shifting of population. This is evident from the Parishes that have merged with others or moved during the past few years, and also from the fact that to this district is assigned the largest missionary quota in the Diocese, and it reports the largest deficit in meeting the quota. The meaning of this is that large sums are expended on maintenance (a large percentage from endowments) which no longer represent the giving capacity of the congregations.

It is also significant that two Parishes have applied to become Missions. One of these is St. Barnabas, at Third and Dauphin Streets. The Church building has been abandoned and is for sale, and the entire worship and work is now centered in the Parish House, which has been put in proper condition for the Church services, as well as the Parish work. Rev. Albert W. Eastburn is now giving this Church his entire time, and the results are most encouraging, both in members and interest.

The other is St. Bartholomew's, at Twenty-fifth Street and Lehigh Avenue, where Rev. A. J. Carty is doing excellent work, and gathering together the scattered interests of this Parish. A considerable sum has been expended on repairs, and another year will demonstrate the possibilities of a larger future.

It is also probable that in the near future another Parish—in Kensington—will be turned over to the Diocese. These changes do not constitute a loss, but they mean that necessary steps, long postponed, have at last been taken, to conserve and strengthen what is already there.

Rev. A. J. Arkin continues his long and remarkable work at St. George's, Richmond. It has many difficulties and there is a shifting of population, but it is the outstanding religious inspiration of the entire neighborhood.

At the adjoining Mission of St. George's, Venango (which was started and nurtured by Rev. Mr. Arkin years ago), Rev. A. H. Hord has been a wonderful pastor and leader. The new Parish House is used to capacity, and only those intimately associated with this Mission have any realization of what is being accomplished. This Church is a community centre, in a most real and definite way. We venture to say that the Men's Club alone is the largest in the Diocese. Our chief concern has been that Mr. Hord would overtax his voice and his strength.

Also nearby, in this far east section of Kensington, is the Italian Mission of St. Mary of The Annunciation, under the Rev. Silvio Biagini. For nearly ten years this Mission has been housed in a two-story dwelling, which is utterly inadequate for the large membership. Something must be done in the near future to provide a suitable building for this congregation. An option has already been secured on a lot well located, or arrangements may possibly be made to use a Church building already in the neighborhood.

Coming further west, at Howard and Ontario Streets, we find St. Ambrose Mission, teeming with life and interest, with the work enlarging and growing stronger each year. This is due to the leadership of Rev. Frederick B. Halsey, who has now completed his tenth year. In the name of the Convocation we congratulate the Mission on this anniversary. Last year a committee was appointed to adopt plans and have a general oversight of the new Parish House project for St. Ambrose. These plans have now been completed and accepted, and with provision from the Diocesan Campaign and other sources the work on the building is about to start, and will be well on the way toward completion before the Diocesan Convention.

Our two Polish Missions are widely separated. The one at the old Church of The Advent, York Avenue below Spring Garden, is facing a change in population and the future is a problem, but the Priest-in-charge—Rev. J. O. Pienionzek—has done faithful work and shown great courage. We shall want to help this situation in the near future.

The other is the Church of The Holy Redeemer in Kensington, under Rev. E. M. Baczewski, which is using the property purchased several years ago. This Mission was started in St. George's Church, Richmond, and has been developing splendidly. There is a large congregation, and a Church School, in addition to many other activities.

St. Augustine's Mission, for the colored people in our Convocation, is situated on Columbia Avenue near Twenty-first Street, and is in charge of Rev. Joseph H. Hudson who was appointed last year when Rev. H. S. McDuffey was unable to carry on due to a physical breakdown. This Mission is doing well, and with an increasing constituency will, we believe, eventually become a Parish. Here, again, the accommodations are not adequate for the work, and we look forward to securing a new plant or the addition of a Parish House, which is so much needed.

Also in our Convocation is All Souls' Church for the Deaf, and though carried on under a special commission of the Diocese is one of our deepest interests. In many respects this Church and its worship are unique, and the members come from all sections of the city. Rev. Warren M. Smaltz continues the fine traditions of a distinguished line of past ministers. In the death of Mrs. H. W. Syle, the widow of a former pastor, this Church sustained a great loss, as it had been her life work of devoted service and consecration.

This report would be incomplete without calling attention to the Hebrew Christian Synagogue, located in the Rectory of the old Church of the Advent, 517 York Avenue. Miss Ormsby is giving splendid leadership and devoted service and, while the beginning must be small in numbers, permanent foundations are being laid. Many men and women of the Diocese are deeply interested in this work.

Also St. John's Settlement House, at Third and Brown Streets, under Deaconess Young, where splendid service is being rendered for the entire neighborhood, and many adults and children brought under the influence of our Church.

Within our Convocation, and reporting their religious statistics, are several of the great institutions of the Diocese, including the Episcopal Hospital, the Galilee Mission and the Seamen's Church Institute.

For enthusiasm and devoted interest to the Missionary work, our Woman's Aid cannot be surpassed. Under the President, Miss Laura Bell, and the other officers the past year was the most successful. The annual Lawn Fete at Wyck was a delightful occasion, and we again wish to express our thanks to Mr. Casper Wister Haines and Miss Haines for the use of their beautiful and historic house and grounds.

The Woman's Aid has not only paid the amount promised to date for the Diocesan Campaign, but has responded to many special and urgent appeals.

The report of the Aid follows the report of the Treasurer of Convocation, and will be found full of interest.

† Amount of $4,800.70 represents all sums received by Mission Treasurer during the year, including interest from endowments, old balance, etc. It is large by reason of generous gifts of a garage and driveway, etc.

Decrease in the number of Communicants is due to a large number of withdrawals from All Soul's to the Lutheran Mission, mainly on the part of those former Communicants who originally were Lutheran before Confirmation.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The outstanding fact of missionary significance in the Convocation of South Philadelphia is a change occurring at St. Elizabeth's Church.

The Reverend John B. Crosby, D.D., has resigned as Missionary-in-charge of St. Elizabeth's and accepted a cure in another Diocese.

Concomitantly with this St. James' Church, Twenty-second and Walnut Streets, has given Dr. Mockridge its support in taking over supervision of this work.

At present, at least, St. Elizabeth's does not enter into the status of a Parochial Mission, but rather is to have that of an Associated Parish.

St. James assumes together with St. Elizabeth's the financial obligation of the work. This will also reduce the expenses of L'Emmanuello, to which the Diocese has appropriated $3700 annually. It means an act of great generosity on the part of St. James, and also a considerable saving to the Diocese.

The Convocation welcomes heartily the entrance of St. James and Dr. Mockridge into its missionary activities.

The Church of St. John the Evangelist is proceeding immediately to the erection of its Parish House. This will enable that already active Parish to do a still greater work. This work is run by the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry without salary. Under his energetic leadership this Parish was saved to the Diocese just as it was about to close its doors. Mr. McHenry also has charge of the Chapel of The Transfiguration, Seventh and Bigler Streets. Here also he serves without salary, the appropriation for that work being spent for the support of a lay-reader, organist, and other expenses. This work continues to grow in its new location. The purchase of the new site for this Mission, one of the most advantageous purchases ever made by the Diocese, was made possible by the Diocesan Campaign Fund. The first unit of its building program will soon be undertaken. Then, it is confidently predicted by Mr. McHenry, the Mission will experience enlarged activity and growth.

The Mission of the Holy Spirit, a work for colored people being conducted in All Saints' Chapel, Eleventh Street and Snyder Avenue, under the Rev. Victor Holly's careful and consecrated leadership, is showing steady and promising growth. Since Mr. Holly took charge, less than a year ago, forty-three have been baptised and twelve confirmed. This work owes much for hospitality and aid in many ways to the generosity of All Saints' Church, and especially to its Rector, the Rev. John E. Hill.

CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The situation in West Philadelphia continues to be increasingly difficult. In common with the other urban Convocations, there have arisen problems that seem to be at present impossible of speedy solution, and only time will make clear the direction that such solutions should take.

The large movement of colored people into this section continues. The Hebrews are pressing in strongly also, and there is a continuous movement all over West Philadelphia of the old populations.

The apartment house problem, with all the large increase of people, is unsolved. Most of these people are transients, without any religious, social or community responsibilities. They live "to be ministered unto" and "not to minister." There has been a large increase in the number of apartments all over West Philadelphia.

The Pennsylvania Railroad improvements are under way and within the next five years it ought to be possible to predict just what the ultimate settlement of business and residential and manufacturing problems will be.

Some questions have arisen as to the proper course to pursue with respect to two of our Missions, St. Titus' and St. Cyprian's. Since the latter building was erected the city has constructed a large open sewer or drain directly in front of the Mission hall. It is a very unpleasant feature of the landscape and is offensive to sight and smell. Whether it would be wise to dispose of this property and move the colored work to St. Titus' Mission, moving the latter to a site some blocks away on Island Road, is engaging the attention of our Convocation now.

The Laymen's Committee, organized to inspire the Parishes and Missions in the matter of the missionary quota, did good work under the leadership of Mr. J. Clifton Buck. We did not reach our allotted quota, but we did wipe out a considerable sum of the deficit.

I desire to call attention to the work that is now being done by the Rev. H. S. Paynter, Rector of St. Barnabas' Church, Haddington, and Mr. William A. Lippincott, of St. Paul's, Overbrook, in the matter of raising our quota for the year 1930. As the representatives of the Convocation in the Executive Council, they are working and planning the presentation of the Mission of the Church to all the Parishes of the Convocation, in the hope that they will be inspired to raise a larger amount than was raised in 1929, and so gradually to reach the full quota allotted to the Parishes.

Our Missionaries have done good work during the year. There has been one change. The Rev. Arthur Moore, who had charge of St. Cyprian's, together with St. Mary's, Chester, has been given entire charge of the latter Mission, and has been succeeded in the case of St. Cyprian's by the Rev. Victor Holly. Mr. Holly also takes care of a colored work conducted at All Saints', Moyamensing, under the direction of Dean Toop and the Rev. J. E. Hill.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM J. COX, Dean

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION

During the past year the Woman's Aid to the West Philadelphia Convocation have held three meetings.

The spring meeting was held at St. James, Kingsessing, May 15, 1929. The fall meeting was held at the Church of the Saviour October 9, 1929. The January meeting was held at the Chapel of the Mediator January 8, 1930. Bishop Coadjutor Taitt addressed the October and January meetings.

The activities consisted of a Garden Party given in June on the lawn of Mrs. Clifford Jones' home, and a Card Party in November. The sum of $500 was raised at these two affairs and a check for that amount was sent to the Bishop for his Campaign Fund.

The Social Service Committee has done marvelous work all through the year, giving outings and parties to thousands of persons, providing braces for cripples. Many families have been provided for and Baptisms and Confirmations have taken place with many. Work has been done at Orphans' Home, Byberry, Philadelphia General Hospital, Settlement and Welfare Homes, and many children have been taken to the seashore. Other branches of work have been carried on. The average attendance at these Convocation meetings is about forty-five persons.

Respectfully Submitted,
ELEANOR HARVEY WOOD
Secretary

Report of the Registrar of the Diocese

The following gifts have been made to the Registrar's library during the past year:

"Colonial Churches," presented by the Reverend Nathaniel B. Groton, Rector of St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh. This is a very beautiful and valuable work containing an account of the best known and most historic Colonial Churches in the United States. The illustrations are numerous and finely executed.

Several Albums of Postal Card Pictures of famous Churches collected by the late Mr. Abner Cloud Baldwin of St. James' Church, Downington, Pa., and presented by his family. This is a very interesting and complete collection—the result of many years' work on the part of Mr. Baldwin.

A valuable gift of pamphlets and books relating to the Church, presented by Mr. A. B. Mitchell, formerly of Roxborough but now a resident of Wilmington, Delaware.

Thanks also are due to those clergymen of the Diocese who have been so kind as to send their parish papers for filing in the department of Parochial History.

For all these gifts to the Diocese the Registrar takes this opportunity to make acknowledgment to the donors.

ARNOLD HARRIS HORD,
Registrar of the Diocese of Pennsylvania

Second Annual Report of the Cathedral Church of Christ

During the past year the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ received from gifts, contributions and bequests for various purposes, included in the Cathedral project, over $259,000.

With the funds not given in trust for specific objects the Chapter was able to defray the cost of certain municipal improvements chargeable against the Cathedral property in Roxborough and to reduce the mortgage indebtedness, which the Corporation has been carrying, by a total expenditure of $103,000.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Chapter,

Report of the Diocesan Campaign Fund

THE RECORD OF THREE YEARS' PROGRESS JANUARY 6, 1930

The year 1929 marked the completion of the third year of the memorable missionary movement in which more than 20,000 of our parishioners united in a consecrated co-operative effort to provide needed material equipment for the Missions and Institutions of their beloved Diocese, and thereby, to remove those serious handicaps which for many years had been halting and hindering the growth and development of their missionary work.

God has abundantly blessed these efforts. In presenting for your information at this Epiphanytide of 1930 a record of these three years of progress, your Committee finds it difficult to avoid the use of superlatives in appraising the value of the loyal and devoted service you have so generously and so unselfishly rendered. In grateful recognition of this service we are confident of your continuing interest in, and devotion to, the work which remains to be done in attainment of the aims and purposes of the historic movement in which you enlisted for service in such mighty numbers.

Through your efforts a new page is being written into the history of our Church in the Diocese and, as the work to which you have set yourselves to carry through to a successful conclusion progresses, we are confident those efforts will be more abundantly enriched with even greater fruitage. As the record of what you have already accomplished unfolds, we know there must come into the hearts and lives of all who are sharers in the work, an increasing realization of the joy of service, and also a prayer of thankfulness that, through our unity of effort in the Master's name to extend His Kingdom, we have been able to uphold the hands and strengthen the hearts of those who are doing for us the Church's work in the Missions and Institutions of our Diocese.

While the words that meet your eyes here are a report to you of the progress being made toward the attainment of the whole Five-Year Program for strengthening and upbuilding our missionary work, they are also more than that. We do want you to know they carry a message of love and deep appreciation to you, from your Bishop and his co-workers in the carrying out of your plans, for the splendid spirit of continuing loyalty, consecration and unfaltering devotion with which you have steadfastly supported and made possible the progress that has been made. It has been your work. It has been your achievement. It has been your sharing with others of the means and measures, by and through which, the work of the Church in its mission stations and in its institutions has been gaining new strength and new courage.

We feel confident as you review the progress that has been made, and also measure the advances which have been made with the conditions that existed prior to three years ago, there will come from your hearts a prayer of thankfulness in having been permitted the privilege of sharing in the great work; and that, you may be granted also the blessed opportunity of further sharing in the work which remains to be done, and of witnessing finally the fruit of your co-operation in a Diocese equipped to give its best for the service of God and humanity.

By December 31, 1929, the books of the Campaign Fund show there was paid out to Missions and Institutions and for miscellaneous expenses $1,190,903. This represents expenditures covering the entire three-year period. Receipts from payments on pledges for the three-year period, interest on deposits and income from invested funds, ending December 31, 1929, aggregated $1,300,785.

EQUIPMENT FOR THE MISSIONS

In the three-year period more than a score of Missions have been helped in obtaining needed equipment and in several instances, through the acquirement of new sites, the Diocese has been able to establish new and promising fields of missionary work. Special attention may be directed here to the Resurrection, Mayfair. Less than two years after services were begun in a rented house, aid was given in acquirement of the first unit of a parish house. This congregation at the last Diocesan Convention was admitted as a self-supporting parish and has assumed the financial obligations incident to the purchase of its site and on which the congregation hopes to eventually erect a church. St. Barnabas, Germantown, is another instance where, following the aid given by the Campaign Fund in completing its parish house, the congregation has reached a position where it has decided to seek admission at the next Convention as a self-supporting parish. Encouraging evidences of growth, and possibilities of other Missions becoming self-supporting units, are also being reported as a result of the co-operative assistance given by the Campaign Fund.

In the accompanying list are shown various ways in which the Campaign Fund has been able to assist our missions during the three-year period; also several instances where the Fund was able to give a helping hand to small parishes.

Advent Mission, Hatboro: Congregation was aided in completion of parish building.

Ascension, Rhawnhurst: Site acquired at Ripley and Frontenac streets; aid given in erection of first unit of parish building.

Holy Innocents, Tacony: Aid given in rebuilding of old parish house; property in danger of being condemned.

Holy Redeemer (Polish): Establishing this growing congregation in home of its own through purchase of church and rectory at 2961 Richmond street.

Holy Sacrament, Highland Park: Aid in erection of new church enabling congregation to have long delayed facilities for expansion in other than small frame building that had been its home for many years.

Holy Trinity, Lansdale: Supplemented efforts of the congregation in completing its new parish building.

Redeemer, Springfield: Aided this congregation in erection of a church, its first unit, enabling it to move from its former quarters in a club house.

Resurrection, Mayfair (now self-supporting parish): Acquirement of site, Rowland and Englewood avenues; aid in erection of first unit of parish building.

St. Barnabas, Germantown (has decided to become self-supporting parish): Aid in completion of parish building.

St. Bartholomew, Wissinoming: Aided congregation to obtain greatly needed parish building.

St. Elisazeth, So. Phila.: Aid given for repairs and renovation to parish house.

St. Gabriel, Feltonville: Aid in completion of final unit of new parish building.

St. George, Venango: Erection of first unit of parish building, East Venango and Edgemont streets.

St. James, Prospect Park: Aided congregation in enlargement of church and in providing first unit of parish building and rectory.

St. John, Essington: Aided in providing additional ground and erection thereon of church to take place of small antiquated frame building.

St. Joseph, Gladwyn: Minor repairs and improvements for living quarters for missionary.

St. Matthew, Roosevelt Boulevard: Site acquired at Comly and Large streets, facing Roosevelt Boulevard. Mission organized and now assembling a growing congregation which is worshipping in a rented property on Oxford Road, and raising funds through which they soon hope to be able to begin erection of first unit of parish building on new site.

St. Mary, Chester: Aid in completion of parish building to serve for worship and congregational activities on new site acquired by congregation at Seventh and Edwards streets.

St. Monica, Phila.: Acquired property of Holy Comforter, 48th street and Haverford avenue, following removal of the congregation to Aronimink, Delaware County, enabling transfer of St. Monica from its old location in Woodland to Haverford avenue location in center of rapidly increasing colored population.

Transfiguration, So. Phila.: Acquirement of new site at Seventh and Bigler streets, and removal of old frame building to the new site.

Trinity, Collingdale: Completion of new parish building to take the place of the diminutive frame structure that for years was its sole equipment for all purposes.

AID GIVEN TO INSTITUTIONS

During the three-year period, in addition to the sum expended on the missionary work in the foregoing list, the Campaign Fund also has paid out a total of $734,327 to Diocesan Institutions and to the National Council. It will be recalled that at the General Convention in 1926 there arose a spontaneous movement to extinguish an accumulated three-year deficit of the National Council, and the Diocese of Pennsylvania through the Bishop promised to raise $160,000 as its share. To pay the balance due on this the Campaign Fund in 1927 allocated $20,481. In the same year the Campaign Fund also paid to the National Council $51,923 to meet the total of $250,000 the Diocese had pledged to the General Church Budget for 1926.

Excluding the above sums paid to the National Council, the amounts paid to Diocesan Institutions by the Campaign Fund during the three-year period have been as follows:

The Episcopal Hospital	$250,000
Cathedral Enterprises	108,723
The Episcopal Academy	80,000
The Church Farm School	50,000
City Mission for Home for Consumptives	45,000
The Galilee Mission	40,000
St. Andrew's, State College	40,000
House of the Holy Child	37,000
Sheltering Arms	8,000
Christ Church Hospital	2,500

WHAT OF THE TWO REMAINING YEARS ?

In the fall of 1926 when the call went out for a united Diocesan co-operative effort to put into operation the Five-Year Program it was estimated that $3,500,000 would be required to meet all the pressing needs of all our Missions and Institutions. The total of all pledges and contributions, including additional ones received subsequent to the close of the intensive period of the movement, amounted to $2,022,000.

This necessitated the cutting down of the amount of constructive work originally planned, and means that the Fund during the remaining two years will be forced to forego much of the assistance it had hoped to render had the $3,500,000 been reached.

There is, however, the opportunity still before the Fund to increase its service to our missionary work, if others who may not as yet have shared in the service come forward and enroll. There will be no further solicitation for funds during the remaining part of the five-year period as the Bishop has already decided and announced.

The progress that has been made in meeting necessities during the years that have gone by is an outstanding witness of what may be done by additional co-operative effort and newly consecrated service on the part of many others who as yet have had no part in the work. Confident of the continued loyalty and devotion of all who have thus far given unwavering service, we are hopeful that their numbers may be increased by the enlistment of many more who may be led to share in the work still to be done. There are gaps in our ranks, too, which have been caused by deaths and other unavoidable circumstances which need to be filled by volunteers. May we not hope there are many to whom this message will appeal as their opportunity for real service.

During the Bishop's leave of absence from the Diocese if there are any who desire to confer about special gifts to the Campaign Fund, or who may wish to give a Memorial to one of our Missions or Institutions, the Bishop Coadjutor or any member of the Committee, or your Rector, will be glad to go over the subject with you. If any one desires to enroll as a pledgor for the remaining two years a request forwarded to any member of the Committee, or through your Rector, will receive immediate attention.

In closing this report your Committee desires to record its sense of deep loss by death during the past year of one of its members, Mr. D. B. C. Catherwood, of the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr. Mr. Catherwood by his counsel, personal interest and support of the movement on behalf of the Missions and Institutions contributed much to the success that has been achieved. His place on the committee has been filled by appointment of the Rev. A. R. Van Meter.

APPENDIX P

Report of Commission on Music

The Commission on Music begs leave to report that it organized a large chorus of about 550 voices, last Spring, to assist the Bishop in the exercises of Diocesan Day on the Cathedral site on June 22.

The excellent performance of this chorus suggested the thought of continuing such an organization as a Diocesan chorus. A meeting was called for this purpose, and resulted in the formation of the "Festival Chorus Association of the Diocese of Pennsylvania," with the following officers:

President, The Rev. N. H. Caley
Vice-President, Mr. Raymond Yeakel
Secretary, Mr. Newell Robinson
Treasurer, The Rev. H. B. Satcher
Conductor, Mr. Harold W. Gilbert

The first appearance of this chorus was on February 12th, in the Church of The Advocate, when Choral Evensong was given. Under the competent leadership of Mr. Gilbert, the rendition of this service was a fine illustration of the type of music this Commission stands for and deserves to see more generally used in our churches.

A selected group from this choir sang three anthems at the Missionary Meeting in the Academy, last night, at the request of the Bishop Coadjutor.

The members of the Commission believe that this Festival Choir will prove to be of real value to the Diocese in advancing the aims of the Commission in its promotion of the best, in Ecclesiastical Music.

G. Herbert Dennison,
Chairman

Resolved: That the Commission on Music be continued.

APPENDIX Q

Report of the Commission on Church Building

For the Year Ending May 1, 1930

The Commission on Church Building of the Diocese held two general meetings in the past year, but, in the interval, through the various subcommittees, numerous problems submitted for advice and counsel were considered and authorized.

The death of the Venerable Dr. Hodge caused great sorrow among the members of the Commission as he had served actively from the days of the inception of the idea that such a diocesan Commission ought to be created, on up to the last meeting in April, 1929.

Mr. John H. Rankin retired from the Commission. He, too, was an original member and served throughout the years with great faithfulness and with much skill in the many problems requiring the technical knowledge of the learned and practical architect, besides exhibiting the sympathy of the cultivated Churchman.

The Bishop appointed the Rev. Archibald Campbell Knowles and Mr. Emlyn Stewardson to fill the two vacancies thus caused.

St. Monica's Mission, for Colored Persons

The subject of the statements in the Report to the Convention last year concerning the buildings at St. Monica's, formerly the Church of the Holy Comforter, 48th Street and Haverford Avenue, was carefully discussed. The statements were to the effect that the buildings had been abandoned by the Church of the Holy Comforter because of their structural insecurity. In extenuation, the Commission offers, that in 1921, by direction of diocesan authorities a thorough survey was made in which the buildings were found to be insecure. A Report was presented in which were detailed specific recommendations covering necessary repairs to the buildings. The Commission was not at any time later apprised that compliance with the recommendations therein offered had been made. It was the belief of those members who had made the survey that when the Congregation removed to Aronimink one of the causes for abandonment had been the insecurity of the buildings. Immediately after the presentation of the Annual Report for 1929, the Commission was informed by officials of the Diocese and by notices in the parish paper that "within the previous five years, not only had extensive repairs been made to the church fabric, but that a Parish Building had been erected, all entailing the expenditure of $15,000.00, and that the sole cause of the removal of the congregation had been the great change in the neighborhood, into which many colored families had come, and that the outlook for a strong, healthy parish was enhanced by the new appearance of the old buildings. A conservative estimate of the cost of reproducing the plant which had been left for the development of a prosperous colored parish was $77,000.00. In addition, a covert remark was made that all these improvements and restorations had been reported by the Convocation to the Convention, besides publication in the "Diocesan News," indicating that the Commission long ago should have been aware of this great expenditure. Notwithstanding the fact that the Commission is diocesan in function and acts for the Convention, no return nor acknowledgment was made by the Convocation officers to the Commission of the report of the laborious survey which without cost to the Diocese had been made by the Commissioners. The Secretary's files contained nothing, therefore, which he could include in the report of the activities of the Commission, nevertheless, he holds himself responsible for the error made in the Annual Report.

In June, the Bishop appointed a committee to re-survey the plant at St. Monica's. The buildings were seen to have been put in a substantially improved condition over what had been noted in 1921, yet, there was found existing a real menace in the position of the heater beneath the floors which, in the judgment of the Committee, created a fire hazard, and, it was, besides, an inefficient heating apparatus. It was deemed wise, therefore, to recommend the complete rebuilding of the heating plant necessitating, perhaps, a new chimney. It was suggested that it might be possible to purchase a supply of heat from the plant of the Hospital across the way. In addition, the walls of the parish house needed dampproofing and replastering; cementing, and other repairs throughout the buildings, also, were needed. Many panes of the stained glass windows had been broken, and the windows otherwise so insecure that thieves had entered through one of them.

Plans for buildings at the CHURCH OF THE ADVENT, HATBORO, were passed upon.

Plans for and subjects relating to the parish of the HOLY COMFORTER, ARONIMINK, were disposed of.

The original plans and specifications for the MISSION OF THE HOLY SACRAMENT, HIGHLAND PARK, having been found excessive, many details were recast by the advice of the Commission. These revisions were executed and the buildings finished and are now in use, but without further consultation with the Commission.

Counsel was given to the Architect, Mr. Gill, for the designs which he had prepared for certain additions for the CHURCH OF ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST, and for buildings for the MISSION OF THE TRANSFIGURATION in S. E. Philadelphia.

Counsel was asked by the Rector and Vestry of CHRIST CHURCH concerning the arrangement of memorials on the interior walls and the preservation of the grave stones in the aisle-floors of this venerable building. The subjects are now in the hands of the Vestry and the American Institute of Architects acting with this Commission.

Plans for Sacristies at St. JAMES THE LESS, were examined and approved, and have been executed.

Plans for a Parish House for TRINITY CHURCH, at LANSDALE, were approved.

The Commission again calls attention to the fact that it has been constituted by canonical appointment for the guidance and help of Diocesan activities in the selection of building sites and plans for church buildings. The usefulness of such a commission is likely to be greatest at the inception of plans for such extension and not when plans are consummated. As the Commission is, therefore, a consultative body, the business of its deliberations would be greatly facilitated were it appealed to at the outstart of affairs and by being informed from time to time of their progress, and by reports thereon from Convocation officers of their completion.

Obediently submitted for the Commission.

Secretary

APPENDIX R

Report of the Committee on the Cathedral Program

The Committee, acting under the resolution adopted at the last Convention, met several times in the autumn and early winter and had reached some conclusions as to the scope and method of its work.

Then the Bishop of the Diocese was given an extended leave of absence which prevents his presence at this Convention. Any report on so important and difficult an undertaking as a Cathedral Program for this Diocese would be bound to bring out considerable discussion and perhaps differences of opinion. It seems to the Committee after careful consideration unwise to invite, in the absence of the Bishop of the Diocese, discussion of a matter in which he is so vitally concerned and responsible.

The Committee, therefore, decided that its duty was to report progress and ask to be continued, to report at the next Convention.

GILBERT PEMBER,
Chairman

RESOLVED: That the Committee be continued to report at the next Convention.

APPENDIX S

Report of the Committee on Communication from the General Convention of 1928

This communication contains four proposed amendments to the Constitution of General Convention, as follows:

1. Amend Article I., Section 3, by adding after the words "entitled to vote in the House of Bishops," at line 7 of the Article, the following words: "except that whenever two-thirds of the House of Bishops are present a majority vote shall suffice."

2. Amend Article I., Section 3, of the Constitution so that the third sentence thereof shall read as follows:

"His term and tenure of office and duties, and particulars of his election not inconsistent with the preceding provisions, shall be prescribed by the Canons of the General Convention."

3. Amend Article I., Section 4, fourth paragraph, the last sentence so that the same shall read as follows:

"In all cases of a vote by Orders, the two Orders shall vote separately, each Diocese having one vote in the Clerical and one vote in the Lay Order, and each Missionary District within the boundaries of the United States of America having a one-fourth vote in the Clerical Order and a one-fourth vote in the Lay Order; and the concurrence of the votes of the two Orders shall be necessary to constitute a vote of the House. No action of either Order shall pass in the affirmative unless it receives the majority of all votes cast, and unless the sum of all the affirmative votes shall exceed the sum of other votes by at least one whole vote."

4. Amend the second and third sentences of Article X. of the Constitution to read:

"No alteration thereof or addition thereto shall be made unless the same shall be first proposed in one Triennial meeting of the General Convention and by a resolve thereof be sent within six months to the Secretary of the Convention of every Diocese and of the Convocation of every Missionary District within the boundaries of the United States of America, to be made known to the Diocesan Convention or Missionary District Convocation at its next meeting, and be adopted by the General Convention at its next succeeding Triennial

Meeting by a majority of the whole number of Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, and by a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies and all the Missionary Districts within the boundaries of the United States, voting by Orders, each Diocese having one vote in the Clerical Order and one vote in the Lay Order, and each Missionary District having a one-fourth vote in the Clerical Order and a one-fourth vote in the Lay Order. Provided, however, that the General Convention at any meeting shall have power to amend the Table of Lessons and all Tables and Rubrics relating to the use of the Psalms by a majority of the whole number of Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, and by a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies, and all the Missionary Districts within the boundaries of the United States, voting by Orders as previously laid down in this Article.

Your Committee, appointed at the last regular Diocesan Convention, to study these proposed amendments, beg leave to report, that having duly considered them, they approve the same.

(1) The first Amendment provides for an alternative method of determining a quorum of the House of Bishops when the choice of a Presiding Bishop is before the said House. To this there is no valid objection.

(2) The second Amendment adds to proviso that the "particulars of his election, i.e. of a Presiding Bishop, not inconsistent with the preceding provisions," shall be prescribed, as are already "his term and tenure of office and duties," by canon. This is merely to make more explicit and complete the regulation of details in choosing a Presiding Bishop, to canonical regulation. To it, no reasonable objection can be made.

(3) The third Amendment is proposed in the interest of clarity in reckoning up a vote by Orders in the House of Deputies. To this also there can be no valid objection.

(4) The fourth Amendment provides for a share in the voting by orders in the House of Deputies, when amendments to the Book of Common Prayer are under consideration, to be given to the Deputies of Missionary Districts. This amendment extends to them the same participation in a vote by Orders, as is found in Art. I, §4. To this no reasonable objection can be taken.

Be it noted however, that in their study of the phraseology of these four amendments your Committee came to the conclusion that while the amendments are in themselves good, yet, the wording thereof might have been more felicitously chosen. They therefore recommend to this Convention the following resolutions:

Resolved: (1) That this Convention approve the amendments afore mentioned in their purpose and as conforming to the principles of the constitution of the General Convention.

Resolved: (2) That this Convention put itself on record as recommending to the General Convention greater care in the choice of phraseology in amendments to the constitution thereof.

For the Committee,

Chairman

Journal of Proceedings

SAINT STEPHEN'S CHURCH, PHILADELPHIA
June 18, 1929

The Special Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania met as above at 9:30 A. M., pursuant to a call of the Bishop of the Diocese.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Thomas James Garland, D.D., LL.D., D.C.L., Bishop of Pennsylvania, assisted by the Rev. Frank L. Vernon, D.D., Litt.D., and the Rev. James F. Bullitt and the Rev. Robert O. Kevin.

The offering was for General Missions, amounting to $44.50.

The Bishop of the Diocese called the Special Convention to order at 10:50 A. M.

The Secretary of the Convention read the Call as follows:

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and the Laity:

The Rev. Samuel S. Drury having declined his election as Bishop Coadjutor of this Diocese,

Therefore, in accordance with Article III, of the Constitution, I hereby call a Special Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the purpose of electing a Bishop Coadjutor, and appoint Tuesday, June 18, 1929 (at the church of the Holy Trinity), for its meeting, beginning with the Celebration of the Holy Communion at 9.30 A. M.

THOMAS J. GARLAND,
Bishop of Pennsylvania

Philadelphia, May 27, 1929

The Secretary of the Convention reported:

That on May 27, 1929, he sent out copies of the Call for the Special Convention to the Clergy of the Diocese and to the Church Wardens of the Parishes in union with the Convention, in accordance with Canon III, Sec. II, 2, together with a letter from the Bishop, and the same letter to the Lay Deputies as certified for the Annual Convention;

That on June 12 he sent notices of the change of place of meeting for the Special Convention from the Church of The Holy Trinity to S. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia, together with the Report of the Committee on Arrangements, to the Clerical and Lay Deputies;

That the List of Clergy entitled to vote at the Special Convention, as furnished by the Ecclesiastical Authority, is the same as at the Annual Convention with the addition of the Revs. A. Baczewski, A. W. Eastburn and A. L. Wood and the removal of the Revs. E. Campbell and J. Hubbell;

That the following Parishes have not sent in certificates of Deputies and therefore have no Lay Deputies in this Convention; S. Peter, Great Valley; S. John, Kelton; Advent, Kennett Square; S. Luke, Chadds Ford; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge; Christ, Franklinville; Holy Innocents, Tacony; S. Bartholomew, Philadelphia; S. Mary, Philadelphia.

The Secretary reported further:

That the following Parishes have not sent in Parish Reports for 1928: Atonement, Morton; S. Luke, Chadds Ford; and that the following Parishes have not paid the Assessments for 1928: Atonement, Morton; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge; S. Bartholomew, Philadelphia.

The Chair ruled that since these Parishes had lost their right to representation in the Annual Convention and had not rehabilitated themselves, that status still held.

A majority of the 247 Clergy entitled to seats and votes and of the Lay Deputies from the 131 Parishes entitled to seats and votes being present, the Convention proceeded to business.

The Secretary read the Conon of Courtesy, as follows:

Canon II, Section VII. Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Clergymen of other Churches in communion with this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, Wardens of Missions organized under the provisions of the Canon on the organization of Missions, and all persons holding any office of trust under this Convention, though not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of this Convention.

The Secretary announced that boxes for the Registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies would be found in the vestibule of the Church.

The President appointed the following Committees:

On Claims of Clergy to Seats: The Revs. Frank Goostray, R. H. Gurley, E. S. Thomas.

On Claims of Laity to Seats: Messrs. C. L. Harper, J. L. Evans, George Hall.

The Rev. L. N. Caley for the COMMITTEE ON DISPATCH OF BUSINESS offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That the Hours of Meeting be from 9.30 A. M. to 1 P. M. and from 2 P. M. to 5.30 P. M., and that after any statement the Bishop may desire to make, the Convention proceed at once to receive nominations for the Office of Bishop Coadjutor of this Diocese.

The Rev. C. H. Long, for the COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS, reported the Plan for Seating the Deputies, and that Luncheon had not been provided.

The COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS offered the following Resolutions, each of which adopted:

1. RESOLVED: That after Reports have been received from the Committees on Claims to Seats, Nominations for Bishop Coadjutor be made from the floor of the Convention, three minutes being allowed for the Nominator to present facts concerning the Nominee and two minutes for two Seconders, the names thus nominated to be handed in writing to the Secretary.

2. RESOLVED: That after Nominations are closed the Convention shall engage in silent prayer, to be followed by the recitation of the Veni Creator Spiritus.

3. RESOLVED: That Nominations may be made before any Ballot and that Ballots subsequent to the First Ballot be taken at once after the announcement of the preceding Ballot.

The Bishop of the Diocese read the following letter:

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

In my conferences with the Bishops Coadjutor elect (excepting the last elected, who did not come to see me) I offered to give them charge of the Aided Parishes in the Diocese as well as the Missions, either at the time of their Consecration, or subsequent thereto at any time they preferred.

I think it is better, however, to include this in the Assignment of Duties and I therefore officially inform you that I have added to the Third Clause such assignment, so that it will now read as follows:

"Third. The full charge of all the Missions in the Diocese, including the Appointment of Missionaries, and the Supervision of the Aided Parishes with such Appointments thereto as are now, or in the future may be, vested in the Bishop."

THOMAS J. GARLAND,
Bishop of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, June 18, 1929.

The Secretary read the instructions for balloting as follows:

For the receiving of the Ballot seven sets of Ballot Boxes have been provided. The Clergy will vote at the Chancel end of the Church; from A to G inclusive at the head of the North Aisle; from H to M inclusive at the head of the Centre Aisle; from N to Y inclusive at the head of the South Aisle. The Parishes will vote at the far end of the Church—the Suburban Parishes (two boxes) at the end of the North Aisle; the City Parishes from Advocate to S. George inclusive at the end of the Centre Aisle; the City Parishes from S. James, Hestonville, to Zion inclusive at the end of the South Aisle. There will be no printed Ballot; write the name of the Candidate of your choice plainly on a slip of paper found in the pews.

Each Parish has but one vote, determined by a majority of the Deputies present; if the Deputies reach no agreement, the Vote of that Parish should be reported "divided" and is lost.

The Chair appointed the following to serve as Tellers:

Clerical Vote: The Revs. N. H. Caley, H. D. Baldy, P. G. Hall, H. W. Jones, C. H. Long, W. R. McKean, J. W. Norris, Thomas Parker.

Parish Vote: Messrs. Charles Cain, J. E. Harper, H. A. James, H. G. Reeder, W. A. Lippincott, William Easterbrook, H. H. D. Balbernie, R. M. Haines, E. R. Longstreth.

The COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF CLERGY TO SEATS reported as follows:

The Committee having considered the claim of the Rev. Warren R. Yeakel to a vote in this Convention, offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED: That the Rev. W. R. Yeakel be not entitled to a vote.

The Resolution was adopted.

The COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF LAITY TO SEATS reported that no claim had been presented.

Nominations for the Office of Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese being in order, the Chair ruled the Nominating Speeches should contain no reference to letters sent out, nor to caucasses held.

The following were nominated for Bishop Coadjutor:

The Rev. Francis Marion Taitt, S.T.D., by the Rev. L. C. Washburn, S.T.D., seconded by the Revs. W. E. Conkling, B. N. Bird, A. E. Clattenburg, D.D., D. M. Steele, D.D., M. E. Peabody and Mr. S. F. Houston.

The Rev. John Mansfield Groton by the Rev. G. C. Foley, S.T.D., seconded by the Revs. L. N. Caley, D.D., and Messrs. R. S. Morris, E. H. Bonsall.

The Rev. Robert Johnston, D.C.L., by the Rev. J. M. Collins, seconded by the Rev. W. J. Cox.

The Rev. James Martin Niblo by Mr. Howard A. James.

On motion of Mr. William White the Nominations were closed and the Convention engaged in silent prayer, followed by the singing of the Veni Creator Spiritus.

The Rev. James Martin Niblo requested permission to withdraw his name from Nomination, which was granted.

The Polls were declared open at 11.40 A. M.

The Polls were declared closed at 11.52 A. M.

The Chairman bade the Convention to Noon Day Prayers.

The COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report.

The Doxology was sung.

The Chair appointed the COMMITTEE ON NOTIFICATION as follows:

The Rev. L. C. Washburn, the Rev. D. M. Steele, the Rev. F. L. Vernon, the Rev. A. E. Clattenburg, Mr. R. H. Morris, Mr. S. F. Houston, Mr. L. B. Runk, Mr. J. E. Woodbridge.

The Rev. L. C. Washburn, for the COMMITTEE ON NOTIFICATION, reported that the Committee had notified the Rev. Dr. Taitt of his election as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania and that he would speak for himself.

The Bishop presented the Rev. F. M. Taitt to the Convention, who thanked the Deputies for the honour they had conferred on him and announced that he would accept the election, subject the confirmation by the Standing Committees and the Bishops of the Church.

The Convention proceeded to sign the Testimonial.

TESTIMONIAL OF ELECTION

We, whose names are hereunder written fully sensible how important it is that the Sacred Order and Office of Bishop should not be unworthily conferred, and firmly persuaded that it is our duty to bear testimony on this solemn occasion without partiality or affection, do, in the presence of Almighty God, testify that the Reverend is not, so far as we are informed, justly liable to evil report either from error in religion or for viciousness of life; and that we know of no impediment on account of which he ought not to be ordained and consecrated to that Holy Office. We do, moreover, jointly and severally declare that we believe him to be of such sufficiency in good learning, of such soundness in the Faith, and of such virtuous and pure manners and godly conversation, that he is apt and meet to exercise the Office of a Bishop to the honour of God and the edifying of His Church, and to be a wholesome example of the flock of Christ.

THOMAS J. GARLAND, D.D., LL.D.,
President of the Convention

RICHARD J. MORRIS,
Secretary of the Convention

I hereby certify that the above testimonial was signed by a constitutional majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania held in the City of Philadelphia on the eighteenth day of June in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred Twenty-nine.

RICHARD J. MORRIS,
Secretary of the Convention.
